19TH YEAR. NO. 81. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1902—TWELVE PAGES. TWO CENTS.

QUESTIONS OF IMPORTANCE TO BE SETTLED ON MONDAY

School Bond Issue and Registration Are to Be Voted Upon.

FORMER WILL BE CARRIED

The Need of Registration Long Apparent to Republican Leaders.

THE PROPOSITION FAVORED

By the Central Committee for the Past Four Years—Popular Opinion on the Subject Both Pro And Con As Expressed in Interviews.

Two important propositions are to be voted on at Monday's election. The board of education will ask the people to permit the sale of $20,000 bonds for the erection of a school house in Bradshaw addition, and it is likely the issue will be authorized.

The question of registration for East Liverpool is one that promises to be interesting, and from the expressions of citizens the result of the vote is in doubt.

The question though non-partisan in its effects is purely a Republican measure here and has been advocated by the leaders of the party for a long time. Four years ago the Republican city central committee took up the matter and not a session of the legislature has since been held that an effort has not been made to have the bill passed.

City Clerk J. N. Hanley was the secretary of the committee, and he, with Joseph Betz and Senator W. V. Blake, have been indefatigable in their efforts to secure the passage of the bill. The city committee has had the matter up in some phase at almost every meeting.

The need of registration for East Liverpool is apparent to every thinking man. Situated as it is right on the border of three states there is clance for fraud at every election, with nothing at present to prevent. There is not another town in the state, with the possible exception of Cincinnati, where a system of registration would be of more practical benefit. In Cincinnati it has been found a help rather than a hindrance to the Republican party, whose majority has steadily grown under it. Youngstown and many other smaller cities of Ohio have registration and find it to work well. There is no dissatisfaction with the law in any of those towns, so far as is known.

An estimate of the cost of registration for two elections a year, made by a prominent Republican who has long served on the central committee is that the cost would not exceed two cents per year per capita of the population. This he considered a very small amount compared with the benefit of pure elections. He declared that no city which had ever tried registration would give it up.

A number of citizens were interviewed today, both those who are for and those who are against the proposition. The result follows:

J. G. Lee: It is a hard matter to get the vote out at an election, and if the voters would be compelled to register, it would still be harder.

A. T. Kelly, First National bank: It is a good thing.

W. A. Weaver: The city is now overburdened with expense, and as we have no legal knowledge of illegal voting there is not much use to pass a registration bill.

Conrad Goodballet, Prohibition candidate for council, Fifth ward: It is a good thing and we should have it by all means.

Irwin Dunlap, Citizens' National bank: Think it would be a good thing.

Richard Chambers, First National bank: 'Tis a good move.

Roland W. Patterson: I have not read much about the question, but I would be favorable to such an action.

George H. Owen, former chairman of the Republican central committee: I have always been in favor of it, and I have not changed my mind. The city is growing so fast now that the need of registering its voters is greater than ever. The cost is too small to talk about. Look at the testimony of people of all parties in cities where registration has been tried. Why, if there should be an attempt to deprive them of it, there would be a mighty protest. I am in favor of honest and fair elections, and these are exactly what we cannot have so long as any stranger is allowed to walk into any polling place, give his name and vote. As to the claim that the vote would be reduced, let it be so if it must. A man who would not take the trouble to register in order to vote does not deserve a vote. The time has gone by when every citizen in East Liverpool knew everybody and whether a man was entitled to vote or not. We must have registration to keep those from voting who have no right to do so.

Rev. Dr. Clark Crawford: I shall work for registration, recognizing it as one of the great needs of the city. I shall call attention to the subject in my sermons tomorrow and ask other ministers to do likewise. It is the duty of every friend of honest elections to vote and work for the system. No city in Ohio needs it more.

Mayor W. C. Davidson: I cannot see wherein the city or citizens would derive any benefit from registration.

Chief T. V. Thompson: I have not given the matter sufficient study to express an opinion.

S. T. Herbert: In my opinion registration would be a detriment to the Republican party. It would tend to decrease the local vote and thus give the northern portion of the county an advantage which, in my estimation, would be unfair. The expense of registration would also be an unnecessary burden on taxpayers.

G. Y. Travis: I have not as yet heard any logical argument in favor of registration. It is only intended to stop illegal voting, and I am not aware of any crookedness of this kind having been permitted here.

Justice H. P. McCarron: I have given the matter little thought, but I do not believe the city is in need of registration. The chances are that the northern end of the county would profit in no great measure if registration is adopted here.

Justice J. N. Rose—I am not in favor of registration. I can see no necessity for it.

Christian Metsch: I will favor any proposition calculated to purify the ballot.

Sol Faulk: I am opposed to increasing the taxes for the purpose of securing registration.

David McLane: Have given the matter little thought, but I believe registration would be a good thing.

M. E. Miskall: Registration is all right. We should have it.

Attorney W. K. Gaston: I am unable to see where there is any need of registration.

Attorney M. J. McGarry: I do not know who is asking for registration, nor what it is wanted for.

NOT PISTOL SHOTS

Torpedoes on the Railroad Caused Excitement on Lower Second Street.

The residents of lower Second street were awakened at a late hour last night by three loud reports which were thought to have been made by the discharge of a pistol. An investigation was made by several men, but nothing could be learned to explain the mystery of the supposed shooting affray.

The matter was reported to the police this morning, who began an investigation. It was learned that a brakeman on a west-bound freight train had placed torpedoes on the track near the foot of Second street to give a signal to the engineer of a train following.

THREE MORE WIVES ASK FOR DIVORCE

Drunkenness and Cruelty Charged Against East Liverpool Husbands.

RESTRAINING ORDER ASKED

By Annie L. Snate Against Husband Withdrawing $500 on Deposit—Woe Soon Followed Bliss in Maude Price's Case.

Lisbon, April 15.—(Special)—Annie L. Snate seeks a divorce from George H. Snate and wants an order restraining him from drawing out $500 which he has deposited in the Potters Building and Savings company in East Liverpool. She accuses him of failure to support, of cruelty and of habitual drunkenness for three years. She says also that he owes her $208.55, which is deposited in his name. She asks alimony also. Brookes & Thompson are her attorneys.

The married life of Maud and Thomas Price has been a severe disappointment to the wife. They were married in April, 1900, at Lisbon. They have one child. Since July, 1900, when the husband abused and beat her into unconsciousness, she has not lived with him. The petition is filed by Brookes and Thompson, of East Liverpool.

Attorney W. F. Lones, of Wellsville, has filed a petition in which Julia B. Nagle asks a divorce from Frederick Nagle. They were married in Pittsburg in July, 1894. Two children were born. The wife charges continued neglect, and says she has been compelled to support herself. She says that for three years he has been a habitual drunkard.

SIZE OF MAJORITY THE ONLY QUESTION

Republican Ticket Sure of a Triumphant Election On Monday.

ONE SOLITARY DEMOCRAT

Who Is Making a Canvass for Support. Prohibitionists Active, But Not Numerous Enough to Count—The Ante-Election Outlook.

Monday is election day, and from present indications it will be a very quiet affair. The entire Republican ticket will be elected by a big majority in spite of the spasmodic efforts and grand stand plays on the part of both Democrats and Prohibitionists.

The ticket of the Democracy will not be a factor, since the leaders utterly failed in their efforts to form a citizens' ticket, and have not even been able to induce a sufficient number of men of their own political party to make the sacrifice and fill out the ticket. A number of blank spaces will appear on this ticket.

So far as can be learned there will be but one Democratic nominee for any office who will make an effort to get a respectable vote. Robert Buchanan, candidate for township clerk, is a well known young man and were he connected with the proper and popular party could not fail to make a good showing. As it is he will get a complimentary vote.

The Prohibitionists and their recently acquired newspaper have been making an unusually strong bid for patronage, but it will not pan out. The party has exhausted its campaign fund in the purchase and posting of cards containing the names of its candidates. The leaders of the party are putting forth every effort to land their candidate for mayor and members of council. They are even accused of confusing the name of Justice Daniel McLane with that of the Prohibition candidate for mayor in the hope that it may win a few votes. In most cases, however, the aspirants are working in a half-hearted manner, realizing the gigantic proposition confronting them in the shape of the Republican majority. One of the candidates for council, when asked how he expected to win, said:

"I really don't know. To be frank with you I am not making the canvass with any idea that I can win, but I have been mentioned in connection with the so-called citizens' ticket and also the Democratic organization. All this has been without my knowledge or consent, so I concluded to make the canvass in order to show the people that I am not a party to the alleged reform movement only in so far as it involves the Prohibition party."

ELOPERS ARRESTED WHILE IN WELLSVILLE

Lisbon, April 5. — (Special) — Mrs. Estella Hawkins came to the probate office yesterday to prevent the marriage of her daughter, Leora, aged 16, to William Neville. Mrs. Hawkins resides about three miles northeast of Lisbon and her daughter was living at the home of Farmer Caldwell, east of here.

Neville works on Jefferson Dickey's farm, near Caldwell's. The mother only knew that the couple had left Elkrun township Friday morning. As there was no information regarding their whereabouts, no warrant could well be issued. Mrs. Hawkins went home, having accomplished nothing.

She returned at daylight this morning. At Judge Boone's residence she got a writ of habeas corpus. It was found that the pair had gone to New Cumberland, W. Va., and been married, returning to Wellsville. Later they were arrested in that city, but released when they showed their marriage certificate. They said they had rented a house in Elkrun township and would go to housekeeping. Attorneys whom Mrs. Hawkins consulted advised her to call the eloping pair home and forgive them.

WORST HE EVER SAW

Bank Examiner Has a Bad Opinion of Belmont Bank Books.

In an interview Bank Inspector Delay told the Wheeling Intelligencer that every day brought out a worse condition of the closed First National bank of Belmont. He also stated that of all the books he ever looked over the Belmont bank books were the rottenest in his experience. He gave a few samples of Cashier Kinney's banking methods. One victim borrowed $280 from the bank to invest in horses. In a short time he deposited $280 and was told the account was balanced. Trusting all was straight he failed to get a receipt and a few days ago was notified that his note was due and he was forced to pay it for the second time.

The treasurer of the Citizens bank had to pay an account of $60 for the second time. Another man deposited $1,000 apiece for each of his three children. It seems no record was was made of this, consequently they are short that much. These incidents are examples of many others. Almost every day certificates of deposit are presented that are marked paid on the bank books. As another result of the trouble S. C. Murphy has sold his property and will bid farewell to Belmont.

LECTURED ON M'KINLEY

Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, Spoke Eloquently of the Late President.

The Sixth number on the high school lecture course was given last night to a large audience at the opera house. Senator J. P. Dolliver, of Iowa, was booked to speak upon "The Working Man of Nazareth," but evidently not to his knowledge, for according to his own statement he was not a theologian and had not spoken upon that subject for several years. He introduced himself as a plain every-day country politician, and said the only difference between politicians and statemen is that a politician becomes a statesmen after he is dead.

With the audience's permission Senator Dolliver said he would speak upon "The Life of Our Late Martyred President."

FROM SOUTH AFRICA

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman, writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

PROBATE MATTERS

Will Filed, Guardian Appointed And Sale of Realty Confirmed.

Lisbon, April 5. — (Special) — The will of the late Jonhn A. Morron, of Center township, was admitted to probate yesterday.

The sale of realty of the estate of Joseph T. McKee, late of Center township, by W. S. Potts, executor, is confirmed.

Emma Campbell, of East Liverpool, mother of James P. Campbell, a minor, has been appointed his legal guardian.

News Review circulation is growing every day. The people appreciate a good thing.

CLAY WORKERS HAVE CEASED WORK AT THE LAUGHLIN NO. 2

The Men Idle, Alleging That Faulty Clay Is the Cause.

CONFERENCE THIS MORNING

Between Committee Representing the Workmen and the Company.

NO DECISION YET REACHED

Joint Session of Jiggermen And Pressers Held This Afternoon to Discuss the Trouble—Pleasing Program Arranged for Printers'.

Owing to the alleged bad condition of the clay at Laughlin No. 2 the clay hands have not been working at the plant since Friday morning. As a result not less than 135 employes are idle and by Monday the biscuit kilnmen will not be able to work. All these kilns will be filled this evening, seven in number, and the green ware room will be about empty. The glost kilnmen will be able to work for a week at least, as there is plenty of ware ahead.

It is said that since the holidays the clay at this shop has not been up to the mark, and the clay workers could not make the class of ware they desired. Yesterday morning the jiggermen and pressers at this plant quit, claiming the clay was "short," and all took a day. Thinking that a new supply of clay could be had by this morning the clay workers again reported at the shop, but there was no apparent change in conditions. A committee, composed of three pressers and three jiggermen, were selected, and a conference was held with Manager Harker. The men aver that this conference was unsatisfactory and all the clay workers left the shop. When representatives of the press called upon the men this morning they were reluctant to say anything about the trouble. Manager Harker was called upon and when asked for his side of the dispute, he said:

"There are always two sides to a story, and the papers, it seems, always give the side of the men."

"I would like to have an expression from you, Mr. Harker," said the News Review reporter, "in order that the facts of the case could be given just as they are."

"The men, it seems, just wanted a day," said Mr. Harker. "When one man wants a day it 'catches,' and the rest of them join in."

"Is it true that there was some trouble with the clay?" was asked.

"It happens in every pottery that sometimes a bad supply of clay is found, and this is no exception. Further, we do not make a practice of talking for publication."

When Mr. Harker was asked if a committee from the shop had called upon him this morning he had nothing to say and walked into the slip house.

There are 24 jiggers at this plant, which are off, throwing 84 persons idle. The 32 pressers are also off and five dishmakers. Six turners and three handlers are also off, making a total of 135 persons in the shop who are not working.

It was announced this morning that a joint meeting of the pressers and jiggermen would be held this afternoon in the Knights of Columbus hall, and not until after this session would the matter be presented to the National officers in an official form.

At a meeting of the social committee of printers' and transferers' union No. 32 held last evening, the final arrangements for the opening of the new meeting place in the Rechabite hall, were completed. There is to be a social on the opening night, which undoubtedly will be a great success. Being composed of a number of ladies, it has been with much difficulty that the members have attended the meetings on account of the former meeting place being somewhat out of the way. Now that the new hall is to be opened the attendance of the ladies is expected to be very large. An attempt is to be made to increase the membership of the local. It is announced that not much work in this respect has been done in the past, but now a new lease of life is to be taken on. Every

Two important propositions are to be voted on at Monday's election. The board of education will ask the people to permit the sale of $20,000 bonds for the erection of a school house in Bradshaw addition, and it is likely the issue will be authorized.

The question of registration for East Liverpool is one that promises to be interesting, and from the expressions of citizens the result of the vote is in doubt.

The Sixth number on the high school lecture course was given last night to a large audience at the opera house. Senator J. P. Dolliver, of Iowa, was booked to speak upon "The Working Man of Nazareth," but evidently not to his knowledge, for according to his own statement he was not a theologian and had not spoken upon that subject for several years. He introduced himself as a plain every-day country politician, and said the only difference between politicians and statemen is that a politician becomes a statesmen after he is dead.

With the audience's permission Senator Dolliver said he would speak upon "The Life of Our Late Martyred President."

FROM SOUTH AFRICA

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman, writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

CLAY WORKERS HAVE CEASED WORK AT THE LAUGHLIN NO. 2

The Men Idle, Alleging That Faulty Clay Is the Cause.

CONFERENCE THIS MORNING

Between Committee Representing the Workmen and the Company.

Owing to the alleged bad condition of the clay at Laughlin No. 2 the clay hands have not been working at the plant since Friday morning. As a result not less than 135 employes are idle and by Monday the biscuit kilnmen will not be able to work. All these kilns will be filled this evening, seven in number, and the green ware room will be about empty. The glost kilnmen will be able to work for a week at least, as there is plenty of ware ahead.

It is said that since the holidays the clay at this shop has not been up to the mark, and the clay workers could not make the class of ware they desired. Yesterday morning the jiggermen and pressers at this plant quit, claiming the clay was "short," and all took a day. Thinking that a new supply of clay could be had by this morning the clay workers again reported at the shop, but there was no apparent change in conditions. A committee, composed of three pressers and three jiggermen, were selected, and a conference was held with Manager Harker. The men aver that this conference was unsatisfactory and all the clay workers left the shop. When representatives of the press called upon the men this morning they were reluctant to say anything about the trouble. Manager Harker was called upon and when asked for his side of the dispute, he said:

"There are always two sides to a story, and the papers, it seems, always give the side of the men."

"I would like to have an expression from you, Mr. Harker," said the News Review reporter, "in order that the facts of the case could be given just as they are."

"The men, it seems, just wanted a day," said Mr. Harker. "When one man wants a day it 'catches,' and the rest of them join in."

"Is it true that there was some trouble with the clay?" was asked.

"It happens in every pottery that sometimes a bad supply of clay is found, and this is no exception. Further, we do not make a practice of talking for publication."

When Mr. Harker was asked if a committee from the shop had called upon him this morning he had nothing to say and walked into the slip house.

There are 24 jiggers at this plant, which are off, throwing 84 persons idle. The 32 pressers are also off and five dishmakers. Six turners and three handlers are also off, making a total of 135 persons in the shop who are not working.

It was announced this morning that a joint meeting of the pressers and jiggermen would be held this afternoon in the Knights of Columbus hall, and not until after this session would the matter be presented to the National officers in an official form.

At a meeting of the social committee of printers' and transferers' union No. 32 held last evening, the final arrangements for the opening of the new meeting place in the Rechabite hall, were completed. There is to be a social on the opening night, which undoubtedly will be a great success. Being composed of a number of ladies, it has been with much difficulty that the members have attended the meetings on account of the former meeting place being somewhat out of the way. Now that the new hall is to be opened the attendance of the ladies is expected to be very large. An attempt is to be made to increase the membership of the local. It is announced that not much work in this respect has been done in the past, but now a new lease of life is to be taken on. Every

RAILS TO STATE LINE

Will Be Laid on Smith's Ferry Extension Today—Good Progress Made.

Work on the Smith's Ferry extension of the East Liverpool street railway extension is progressing rapidly and it was announced by Supt. Thomas Reed this morning that the work of laying the rails to the state line would likely be completed by this evening. The road would then be ballasted as soon as possible and the operation of the cars would be extended rapidly.

There is work yet to be done before the company can enter Smith's Ferry, as it may be that the company will have to build a bridge over Beaver creek before it can run cars to that town. It may be that an arrangement can be made with the commissioners of Beaver county for the right to cross the bridge at that point, but this is something that will have to be looked after later.

Grant McDade Saw Ira Marlatt—He Thinks Him Not So Black as Painted.

Grant McDade has returned to the East End From Columbus, where he has been attending the medical school at the Ohio State university. The latter is employed in the stove department, while Marlatt is doing odd work about the walled city.

"Marlatt is not as bad as he is painted," said McDade. There is an impediment in his speech, but otherwise one would not suppose there was anything the matter with him. I also inquired about Zach Robinson, but was unable to see him."

ADMITS A MURDER

Drunken Man Makes a Sensational Statement That May Cost His Life.

Steubenville, April 5.—Sensational information has come to light concerning the mystery surrounding the death of James Gosnell on Perrin's Run several years ago, when some unknown assassin fired a load of buckshot through his body while Gosnell was seated reading by lamp light in his own kitchen with his family in an adjoining room. The assassin fired from the garden near the kitchen window.

Dr. G. W. Smith, of Mt. Pleasant has for years been trying to locate Gosnell's murderer. It is now believed his efforts are about to be rewarded, for the reason he accidentally overheard a drunken man, whose name has not yet been divulged, remark: "I shot Jim Gosnell, and I was paid $25 to do it."

Dr. Smith has learned that the man who made the sensational statement repeated it to three other men. His arrest is expected to follow soon.

A SOLDIER'S VIEWS OF THE FILIPINOS

Humorous Observations About the Natives by One Who Don't Like Them.

WILLIAM MANLEY'S IDEAS

After Service In the United States Infantry—The Islands and Their People Described In Terms Not Altogether Complimentary.

After a close and careful study of the country in which he was then serving as a soldier with Company H, Fourteenth United States infantry, William Manley, of this city, wrote at Manila, P. I., the following brief history of his observations:

The Philippine islands are bunches of trouble, gathered together on the western horizon of civilization. They are bounded on the north by rocks, itch and destruction; on the east by typhoons, monsoons and leprosy; on the south by cannibals, gugus, earthquakes and bubonic plague, and on the west by hoodoism, ladrones and beriberi.

The climate is a combination of electrical changes, adapted especially to "raising cain." The soil is extraordinary fertile, producing bounteous crops of insurrection, pickaninnies and trickery. The Filipinos, having been so long under Spanish rule, are very industrious, their chief occupations being trench-building, the manufacture of bamboo cannons, bolos, knives, bows and arrows and reloading Remington cartridges. The standard ammunition for their cannon is composed of iron washers, nails, boiler plate, punches, etc.

Principally among the Filipinos' amusements are cock fighting, monte dealing, cariboo and pony racing, theft and cheating. Their diet consists of grasshoppers, boa constrictors, eels, shrimp, lizards and rice in all styles.

The marriage ceremony is indeed impressive, especially as regards the clause wherein the wife is given the privilege of working as much as the husband desires. The beast of burden is the cariboo, or water buffalo. On a three mile "hike" only ten days' rations are required, but before the driver could cover 100 miles he would die of old age, the animals being slower than molasses in February.

All rivers and canals are sepentine in course, their currents running in opposition to all laws of gravitation. Manila, the capital and principal city, is situated on Manila bay, a large landblocked body of water filled with fish, snakes and Spanish sub-marine mines. Cavite, the next city of importance, is noted for its natural facilities for a naval station and for its many saloons and Chinese. The principal exports are rice, hemp, war bulletins and dead soldiers.

Malaria is so prevalent that on various occasions the islands have been shaken with chills. Luzon, the largest of the group, has submitted the mosquito for the carrier pigeon for the reason the mosquito is much larger and capable of enduring the fatigue of travel.

The native costume is a flour sack tied about the waist. Children under 15 years of age have to wait until the next year for their regalia. Here it is is far more preferable to be the undertaker than the ice man.

Most of the towns are aggregations of shacks filled with filth, flies, cats, cur dogs, ponies, pigs, chickens, goats, monkeys, parrots, bedbugs and all kinds of lizards. The occupants of the rudely built houses all sleep on terms of equality with their nightly "visitors."

Native drinks are beno, concentratted terantula juice, cactus juice,, tinto-dulce, swipes and "tuba"—the latter being termed "barbed wire and lightning" by the soldiers. Luzon champagne was Aguinaldo's favorite drink.

The Philippines in their present condition would make an appropriate present for a deadly enemy. The natives are friends at the point of a rifle. The climate is generally healthful for roaches, mosquitoes, tarantulas, alligators, scorpions and snakes. The women—!!! The soil is most adaptable to the raising of foul odors and disease. The country is infested from one end to the other with worthless and ignorant followers of Aguinaldo. Very few of the United States soldiers are desirous of settling in the Philippines.

Following is the bill of fare served to the soldiers on New Year's day, 1901:

Relishes—Olives, radishes, chutney, celery, which, owing to the rainy season, was not to be had.

Soups—Mock turtle, Julienne cream and tomato. This course was left out because of a wrong reckoning in the commissary department.

Fish—Crocodiles, a la Filipino, lizard legs on toast, mosquito tongue and unegelle.

Meats—Roast pheasant and marsellaise, more commonly known as United States canned sausage; French fried beef, with buttons, known in civilized countries as bacon.

Vegetables—Potatoes mashed, stewed, fried, boiled—any ol dway.

Desserts—Chocolate cake, like mother used to make; sauce a la monona, schweitzer, limberger and smear cheese; pineapples, bananas and nuts on the trees.

Drinks—Water, aqua pura, Rhine wine, St. Julienne and Mumm's extra dry champagne and tinto dulce.

Bon Ami

Requires only a little water and slops are avoided.

SUFFERED THREE YEARS. CATARRH OF STOMACH.

Miss Evelyn Morse writes from 651 Adams Street, Minneapolis, Minn., as follows:

"I suffered for nearly three years with catarrh of the stomach which no medicine seemed to relieve, until a friend advised me to try Peruna. Although skeptical, I tried it, and found it helped me within the first week. I kept taking it for three months, and am pleased to say that it cured me entirely, and I have had no symptoms of its return. I am only too glad to recommend it."—EVELYN MORSE.

Adia Brittain, of Sekitan, O., writes: "After using your wonderful Peruna three months, I have had great relief. I had continual heaviness in my stomach, was bilious, and had fainting spells, but they all have left me since using Peruna. I can now get around and do my housework, and think Peruna the greatest medicine I ever used."—Adia Brittain.

Mrs. Lizzie Blevins, 102 Boliver street, Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "I candidly feel Peruna was the means of saving my life, for I suffered for months from catarrh of the stomach. Two bottles of Peruna cured me."—Mrs. Lizzie Blevins.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

A SOLDIER'S VIEWS OF THE FILIPINOS

Humorous Observations About the Natives by One Who Don't Like Them.

WILLIAM MANLEY'S IDEAS

After Service In the United States Infantry—The Islands and Their People Described In Terms Not Altogether Complimentary.

After a close and careful study of the country in which he was then serving as a soldier with Company H, Fourteenth United States infantry, William Manley, of this city, wrote at Manila, P. I., the following brief history of his observations:

The Philippine islands are bunches of trouble, gathered together on the western horizon of civilization. They are bounded on the north by rocks, itch and destruction; on the east by typhoons, monsoons and leprosy; on the south by cannibals, gugus, earthquakes and bubonic plague, and on the west by hoodoism, ladrones and beriberi.

The climate is a combination of electrical changes, adapted especially to "raising cain." The soil is extraordinary fertile, producing bounteous crops of insurrection, pickaninnies and trickery. The Filipinos, having been so long under Spanish rule, are very industrious, their chief occupations being trench-building, the manufacture of bamboo cannons, bolos, knives, bows and arrows and reloading Remington cartridges. The standard ammunition for their cannon is composed of iron washers, nails, boiler plate, punches, etc.

Principally among the Filipinos' amusements are cock fighting, monte dealing, cariboo and pony racing, theft and cheating. Their diet consists of grasshoppers, boa constrictors, eels, shrimp, lizards and rice in all styles.

The marriage ceremony is indeed impressive, especially as regards the clause wherein the wife is given the privilege of working as much as the husband desires. The beast of burden is the cariboo, or water buffalo. On a three mile "hike" only ten days' rations are required, but before the driver could cover 100 miles he would die of old age, the animals being slower than molasses in February.

All rivers and canals are sepentine in course, their currents running in opposition to all laws of gravitation. Manila, the capital and principal city, is situated on Manila bay, a large landblocked body of water filled with fish, snakes and Spanish sub-marine mines. Cavite, the next city of importance, is noted for its natural facilities for a naval station and for its many saloons and Chinese. The principal exports are rice, hemp, war bulletins and dead soldiers.

Malaria is so prevalent that on various occasions the islands have been shaken with chills. Luzon, the largest of the group, has submitted the mosquito for the carrier pigeon for the reason the mosquito is much larger and capable of enduring the fatigue of travel.

The native costume is a flour sack tied about the waist. Children under 15 years of age have to wait until the next year for their regalia. Here it is is far more preferable to be the undertaker than the ice man.

Most of the towns are aggregations of shacks filled with filth, flies, cats, cur dogs, ponies, pigs, chickens, goats, monkeys, parrots, bedbugs and all kinds of lizards. The occupants of the rudely built houses all sleep on terms of equality with their nightly "visitors."

Native drinks are beno, concentrated terantula juice, cactus juice,, tinto-dulce, swipes and "tuba"—the latter being termed "barbed wire and lightning" by the soldiers. Luzon champagne was Aguinaldo's favorite drink.

The Philippines in their present condition would make an appropriate present for a deadly enemy. The natives are friends at the point of a rifle. The climate is generally healthful for roaches, mosquitoes, tarantulas, alligators, scorpions and snakes. The women—!!! The soil is most adaptable to the raising of foul odors and disease. The country is infested from one end to the other with worthless and ignorant followers of Aguinaldo. Very few of the United States soldiers are desirous of settling in the Philippines.

Following is the bill of fare served to the soldiers on New Year's day, 1901:

Relishes—Olives, radishes, chutney, celery, which, owing to the rainy season, was not to be had.

Soups—Mock turtle, Julienne cream and tomato. This course was left out because of a wrong reckoning in the commissary department.

Fish—Crocodiles, a la Filipino, lizard legs on toast, mosquito tongue and unegelle.

Meats—Roast pheasant and marsellaise, more commonly known as United States canned sausage; French fried beef, with buttons, known in civilized countries as bacon.

Vegetables—Potatoes mashed, stewed, fried, boiled—any ol dway.

Desserts—Chocolate cake, like mother used to make; sauce a la monona, schweitzer, limberger and smear cheese; pineapples, bananas and nuts on the trees.

Drinks—Water, aqua pura, Rhine wine, St. Julienne and Mumm's extra dry champagne and tinto dulce.

East Liverpool has a chance to get what large numbers of her citizens have for years considered a desideratum, and that is the full benefit of the registration laws. Those who believe that the system promotes purity of elections and should be given a trial should not be scared from voting their convictions by the cry that registration would be expensive. All the necessary expense for maintaining the system could be met at a cost of a very few cents annually for every voter in this city. Is there any good citizen who cannot afford this expenditure for a worthy cause? There can be no harm to any party or individual in giving the place a trial. If East Liverpool does not find that registration is a good and advantageous system and worthy to be maintained, her experience will certainly be contrary to that of other and larger cities.

The good citizen does not overlook the importance of the spring election. It is quite as important that good men be chosen for local offices as for state and national offices. The wrong man in an East Liverpool office can do infinitely more harm to his city than he could, if he were elected to a state office. Home rule is the principle in the conduct of the American municipalities and the people get good or bad local government, according to the sort of men they put in office. The Republican ticket in this city is composed of men who can be trusted. Vote it straight, and get your neighbor to vote, too.

Congressman Shafroth, of California, has proposed a new design for the American flag. He leaves the stripes as they are, but rearranges the stars, grouping the newer stars in to form one big star in the center and surrounding it with the original thirteen. The design is certainly artistic, but the old flag as it has appeared for the last century or so is too familiar and beloved an object to be tampered with. All that it stands for is remembered, and public sentiment will scarcely tolerate any changes.

One day more and then the handful of Democrats will wonder what struck them. Every Republican should turn out and make it plain that he thinks very little of Democracy.

Registration helps to prevent election contests and dissatisfaction and removes one of the strongest grounds for the oft-raised cry of "fraud." Can East Liverpool afford to go on record against it?

Your vote will be needed to swell the Republican majority. Turn out and make the opposition, already feeble and discouraged, take to the woods.

The young man or the old who does not take enough interest in local affairs to vote is recreant to the duties and responsibilities of citizenship.

The Republican who stays at home assists the opposition. Don't do it. Don't give the Democrats any chance to figure up "gains."

Vote the entire Republican ticket on Monday. It is the best one, as well as the only one that stands any chance of being elected.

The school board appeals for funds to provide additional school accommodations. It should not appeal in vain.

Spring is coming again.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Sarah J. Moore.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Moore died at her home on Fifth street at 3:45 o'clock this morning, nervous complications being the cause. The lady had been a sufferer from the complaint for the last 10 years.

Mrs. Moore was 72 years of age and came from one of the oldest and most prominent families of Beaver county, Pa. She was a sister of the late Judge Martin, father of Mrs. J. H. Brookes, of this city. One brother and one sister survive, Abner Martin, of the East End, and Mrs. H. J. Abrams, of this city.

On November 1, 1849, Sarah J. Martin was united in marriage to J. W. Moore, and for 40 years they resided in St. Clair township. Eleven years ago they moved to this city, where she has since resided. Two sons and one daughter survive, James L. Moore, of Madison township; Mrs. S. P. Saint, St. Clair township, and John Moore, of this city.

Mrs. Moore was a life long member of the United Presbyterian church, and possessed a character which was well worthy of imitation. Funeral services, in charge of Dr. J. C. Taggart, will be conducted at the late home at 10 o'clock Monday morning; private interment to follow at the Calcutta U. P. cemetery. The remains may be viewed between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock tonight and from 6 to 7 tomorrow evening.

AT THE THEATER

The "Katzenjammer Kids Company," composed of bright and high class specialty people, for next Tuesday's attraction at the Grand. The company will present novelty and comedy numbers. Special scenery and electrical effects add to the entertainment. This company has been on the road several seasons, playing in all of the principal cities. Don't fail to hear the Bates musical trio.

An engagement which has been anticipated with considerable pleasure by theater-going people is the return visit of Denman Thompson's "Our New Minister" at the Grand Monday evening, April 7. It is the greatest play of New England country life ever given to the stage. It tells a simple story, is full of the pathos of nature and is bubbling over with fun.

It may not be long until some extensive improvements will be made to the West End pottery. During the past week an architect has spent considrable time at this plant taking measurements for this contemplated work, but at the office of the company no facts concerning the exact nature of the improvements thought of can be learned. However, it is averred that the kiln capacity will be increased, and if this is done, additions to other parts of the factory will have to be made, and especially to the warehouse. It is said that several thousand dollars may be spent improving this factory.

It was after 11 o'clock before the meeting of Kilnmen's local No. 9 adjourned last evening. Discussions upon resolutions was the cause. Delegates to Trades and Labor Council elected are John Pennington, James Hargraves and Wash Williams. All resolutions which will be presented to the national convention have been passed.

Three additional round, down-draft kilns have just been completed at the Great Western works of the American Sewer Pipe company located at Toronto. With this additional kiln capacity, judging from past records the Great Western will likely be capable of turning out a larger daily output of pipe than any other other of the company's Ohio river plants.

A new pottery is contemplated at Catlettsburg, Ky. Stockholders of the K. B. Ceci' Pottery company of that city and of the Burly & Winter Pottery company of Crooksville, O., are interested.

William Cauley, a packer at Harker's, has been unable to work for several days on account of a felon on his hand. He is now spending several days at his former home at Salineville.

Kilndrawers' local No. 17 will meet this evening in Brotherhood hall. It is likely a report of the committee having in charge the forimng of a benefit feature of this local will make a report.

Elijah Mountford, assistant general manager of Laughlin No. 2, who went to Trenton yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of his son-in-law, will return to the city Monday morning.

If some of the locals do not complete the work on their resolutions before Thursday, it is likely they will hold special sessions, at which nothing but the resolutions will be discussed.

Miss Margaret Stoffel, a transferer at the Wallace & Chetwynd plant, has been confined to her home on Avondale street for several days with an attack of throat trouble.

Owing to a rush of orders for plain printed ware many of the employes of the decorating department of the Goodwin pottery were not working full time this week.

Orange Jackson, a batter-out for James Mount at the 'Pool, has resigned his position and hereafter will be located at the Edwin M. Knowles plant at Chester.

East Liverpool has a chance to get what large numbers of her citizens have for years considered a desideratum, and that is the full benefit of the registration laws. Those who believe that the system promotes purity of elections and should be given a trial should not be scared from voting their convictions by the cry that registration would be expensive. All the necessary expense for maintaining the system could be met at a cost of a very few cents annually for every voter in this city. Is there any good citizen who cannot afford this expenditure for a worthy cause? There can be no harm to any party or individual in giving the place a trial. If East Liverpool does not find that registration is a good and advantageous system and worthy to be maintained, her experience will certainly be contrary to that of other and larger cities.

The good citizen does not overlook the importance of the spring election. It is quite as important that good men be chosen for local offices as for state and national offices. The wrong man in an East Liverpool office can do infinitely more harm to his city than he could if he were elected to a state office. Home rule is the principle in the conduct of the American municipalities and the people get good or bad local government, according to the sort of men they put in office. The Republican ticket in this city is composed of men who can be trusted. Vote it straight and get your neighbor to vote, too.

Congressman Shafroth, of California, has proposed a new design for the American flag. He leaves the stripes as they are, but rearranges the stars, grouping the newer stars in to form one big star in the center and surrounding it with the original thirteen. The design is certainly artistic, but the old flag as it has appeared for the last century or so is too familiar and beloved an object to be tampered with. All that it stands for is remembered, and public sentiment will scarcely tolerate any changes.

One day more and then the handful of Democrats will wonder what struck them. Every Republican should turn out and make it plain that he thinks very little of Democracy.

Registration helps to prevent election contests and dissatisfaction and removes one of the strongest grounds for the oft-raised cry of "fraud." Can East Liverpool afford to go on record against it?

Your vote will be needed to swell the Republican majority. Turn out and make the opposition, already feeble and discouraged, take to the woods.

The young man or the old who does not take enough interest in local affairs to vote is recreant to the duties and responsibilities of citizenship.

The Republican who stays at home assists the opposition. Don't do it. Don't give the Democrats any chance to figure up "gains."

Vote the entire Republican ticket on Monday. It is the best one, as well as the only one that stands any chance of being elected.

The school board appeals for funds to provide additional school accommodations. It should not appeal in vain.

Spring is coming again.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Sarah J. Moore.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Moore died at her home on Fifth street at 3:45 o'clock this morning, nervous complications being the cause. The lady had been a sufferer from the complaint for the last 10 years.

Mrs. Moore was 72 years of age and came from one of the oldest and most prominent families of Beaver county, Pa. She was a sister of the late Judge Martin, father of Mrs. J. H. Brookes, of this city. One brother and one sister survive, Abner Martin, of the East End, and Mrs. H. J. Abrams, of this city.

On November 1, 1849, Sarah J. Martin was united in marriage to J. W. Moore, and for 40 years they resided in St. Clair township. Eleven years ago they moved to this city, where she has since resided. Two sons and one daughter survive, James L. Moore, of Madison township; Mrs. S. P. Saint, St. Clair township, and John Moore, of this city.

Mrs. Moore was a life long member of the United Presbyterian church, and possessed a character which was well worthy of imitation. Funeral services, in charge of Dr. J. C. Taggart, will be conducted at the late home at 10 o'clock Monday morning; private interment to follow at the Calcutta U. P. cemetery. The remains may be viewed between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock tonight and from 6 to 7 tomorrow evening.

The fisheries of the United States were then intellectually discussed by each member of the club.

BRICK ON HIS HEAD

A Pile Fell on a Workman in a Trench. Narrow Escape.

Carl Freeman, employed by Irwin Bros., sewer contractors, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday while working in a trench below the United States pottery. He was laying bricks at the bottom of the trench when a large pile of brick, which had been laid too close to the trench by a gang of Italians, fell onto him, one striking him on the top of the head, cutting a gash four inches in length.

He was bruised otherwise, but his physician states that he was not seriously hurt and will recover in a few days.

NO GENERAL STRIKE

Yet at the C. & P. Shops, But Men Are Firm for Ten Hours.

The strike situation at the C. & P. shops remains unchanged. The boiler makers are standing by their agreement—to work but 10 hours per day. The employes in the other departments have not made a strike as yet, but it is understood that they will when the master mechanic returns from a visit to Philadelphia.

Several petitions are ready for his decision, and if he does not grant the 10-hour day they say a strike among the entire force will certainly ensue.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB

Held an Important Meeting And Elected Officers for the Year.

The Twentieth Century club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. W. Butler, Main street, and all report a profitable as well as a pleasurable time. A short literary program was rendered, after which an hour was spent socially, a delicate refection being one of the features. A short drill on parliamentary rules, conducted by Mrs. W. F. Lones, was also executed. The program consisted of a paper on "Men Who Made America," which was read by Mrs. Lones. The paper was very interesting, all of America's great men, from Washington down to McKinley being pictured in their admirable states. The fisheries of the United States were then intellectually discussed by each member of the club.

Officers were elected for the year as follows: Mrs. E. G. Whitacre, president; Mrs. H. C. Wells, first vice president; Mrs. J. C. Catlett, second vice president; Mrs. A. P. Dennis, secretary, and Miss Mary S. Cope, treasurer.

Mrs. L. F. Laverty, Mrs. A. R. Wells and Miss Mary Smith were appointed as a committee to arrange the yearly program. Literature of the United States and of Ohio will be the subjects placed upon the program. The next and last meeting will be held with Mrs. Everson Friday afternoon, April 11.

MISTLETOE CROWD

Given an Enjoyable Party at the Home of Miss Beulah Wells.

One of the pleasing social events of the season was the party given to the members of the "Mistletoe Crowd" by Miss Beulah Wells at her beautiful home, Main street, last evening. The evening was spent most enjoyably in the playing of the latest social games, which were interspersed by vocal and instrumental music rendered by members of the "Crowd." A luncheon served by the hostess was also a delightful feature of the evening's enjoyment.

Those present were: Misses Nellie Davis, Mary Yost, Beulah Williamson, Lena Lowary, Gertrude Lythe, Bessie Brannon, Ethel Clark and Kate Donaldson; Messrs. Corydon Arnold, Wayne Wells, Thomas Sheets, George Imbrie, Albert Goetz, Guy Hammond and Walter Moore.

BRICK ON HIS HEAD

A Pile Fell on a Workman in a Trench. Narrow Escape.

Carl Freeman, employed by Irwin Bros., sewer contractors, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday while working in a trench below the United States pottery. He was laying bricks at the bottom of the trench when a large pile of brick, which had been laid too close to the trench by a gang of Italians, fell onto him, one striking him on the top of the head, cutting a gash four inches in length.

He was bruised otherwise, but his physician states that he was not seriously hurt and will recover in a few days.

NO GENERAL STRIKE

Yet at the C. & P. Shops, But Men Are Firm for Ten Hours.

The strike situation at the C. & P. shops remains unchanged. The boiler makers are standing by their agreement—to work but 10 hours per day. The employes in the other departments have not made a strike as yet, but it is understood that they will when the master mechanic returns from a visit to Philadelphia.

Several petitions are ready for his decision, and if he does not grant the 10-hour day they say a strike among the entire force will certainly ensue.

MINER'S WEALTH CLEAN

NO BLOOD NOR TEARS ON IT AND NOBODY WRONGED.

A Minister's View on Fortunes That Are Dug From the Ground.

I admire a miner's wealth. It is clean. There is neither blood nor tears in it. Nobody has been pinched; nobody has been wronged. The miner who digs a fortune out of the ground has the satisfaction of knowing that he hasn't robbed a soul, though he becomes a thousand times a millionaire. Then, too, there is another factor to take into consideration. The man who makes a fortune on the board of trade or the stock exchange, or in building up a gigantic business house, adds nothing to the world's store of available wealth. The world, in other words, is no richer because he is richer. He is richer rather because some one else is poorer. The miner, on the other hand, whether he digs out $10 or $100,000, adds that much to the world's wealth, and with the added wealth he contributes just that much to the world's comforts and pleasures.

As I look at the matter there are few producers of wealth. The many live on the few. The only man comparable with the miner is the farmer. He gets what he has direct from nature, but he produces perishable wealth. While he meets a want, his contribution is the world's wealth, therefore, is not a permanent one, like the miner's. The gold miner today is the king of the wealth producers of the country, and I honor him above all others. It is no dishonor; it needs no apology to emulate his example or assist him in his efforts. There is the whole question in a nut-shell.—Rev. Robert McEntyre.

OPERATIONS ON A LARGE SCALE

Stock Market Movements Mysterious as to Motive and Identity of Speculators.

New York, April 5.—Friday's stock market gave unmistakable evidence of a substantial recruiting of the speculative element. The movement was a good deal of a mystery, both as to its motive and as to the identity of the operators. Stock market gossip attributed it to the same group of western capitalists to which many recent movements have been attributed and which has been supposed to be concerned in the present large speculative operations in the grain markets. The day's operations were on a far larger scale than anything in the recent history of the stock market. The dealings in St. Paul and Union Pacific were vividly reminiscent of the days of the boom of last year. If the dealings in these stocks are added to those in Louisville and Nashville and in Southern Pacific it will be found that considerably more than one-third of the day's aggregate transactions are accounted for. It was not until late in the day, in fact, that much impression was made upon other portions of the list. Such stocks as the New York public utilities, New York Central and Pennsylvania were then brought forward with spasmodic advances. In the final hour selling to take profits made heavy inroads upon prices and reduced all of the principal gains to fractional limits. The market closed dull and steady. There was very active realizing among many of the specialties recently advanced, conspicuously Sugar and Colorado Fuel. Neither were there lacking the wide advances in obscure specialties which have recently characterized the market. There was no change in the situation of the money market except as indicated by a loss of cash by the banks during the week of over $3,000,000 to the sub-treasury, which is offset by a gain on the interior movement of less than a million dollars.

There was an active demand for bonds, for which there was a good open market all day. Total sales, par value, $5,280,000.

We have received a lot of

which we will sell at $1.25 Per Set. They're a "specially" good thing at the price and we only have a hundred sets, so if you want one you'll have to come soon. If you can't come phone us and we'll send you a set.

YOUNG FIEND'S WEIRD TALE.

Fifteen-Year-Old Boy Says He Cut Throat of Old Man at Latter's Solicitation.

Salt Lake, Utah, April 5.—Clyde Felt, the 15-year-old boy who stated to the police that he had concealed the body of Sam Collins, the aged watchman of the Wasahtaka mines at Warm Springs, after the latter had committed suicide, yesterday broke down and confessed that he had cut the old man's throat in the little cave above Warm Springs, stripped the body of clothing, and after walling up the entrance with stones had buried the bloodstained clothes. Young Felt said that he had cut Collins' throat only after long urging by the old man, who insisted that he wanted to die and was afraid to commit the deed himself.

From statements made by other boys in the neighborhood of the tragedy, however, the police believe that half of young Felt's story has not been told, and that behind the tragedy is a conspiracy among a number of young boys in the old man's power which finally culminated in Collins' death. A number of other arrests probably will follow.

Motor-Drawn Canal Boats.

Hamilton, O., April 5.—The first trip of canal boats on the Miami and Erie canal drawn by an electric motor was made yesterday. Six boats in line, laden with material for building the line to Cincinnati, were drawn easily to Port Union, a distance of five miles. Material will be transported in this way daily as the track laying is extended toward Cincinnati. The line is expected to be open for traffic from here to Cincinnati early in June.

Provided American Scholarships.

London, April 5.—The will of Cecil Rhodes provided for the settlement of colonial scholarships and two American scholarships to each of the present states and territories of the United States. The scholarships are at Oxford. Mr. Rhodes explicitly says he is to be buried in an aperture cut in the solid rock, surmounted by a brass tablet bearing the words: "Here lie the remains of Cecil John Rhodes." No one else is to be buried there who has not deserved well of his country.

MINER'S WEALTH CLEAN

NO BLOOD NOR TEARS ON IT AND NOBODY WRONGED.

A Minister's View on Fortunes That Are Dug From the Ground.

I admire a miner's wealth. It is clean. There is neither blood nor tears in it. Nobody has been pinched; nobody has been wronged. The miner who digs a fortune out of the ground has the satisfaction of knowing that he hasn't robbed a soul, though he becomes a thousand times a millionaire. Then, too, there is another factor to take into consideration. The man who makes a fortune on the board of trade or the stock exchange, or in building up a gigantic business house, adds nothing to the world's store of available wealth. The world, in other words, is no richer because he is richer. He is richer rather because some one else is poorer. The miner, on the other hand, whether he digs out $10 or $100,000, adds that much to the world's wealth, and with the added wealth he contributes just that much to the world's comforts and pleasures.

As I look at the matter there are few producers of wealth. The many live on the few. The only man comparable with the miner is the farmer. He gets what he has direct from nature, but he produces perishable wealth. While he meets a want, his contribution is the world's wealth, therefore, is not a permanent one, like the miner's. The gold miner today is the king of the wealth producers of the country, and I honor him above all others. It is no dishonor; it needs no apology to emulate his example or assist him in his efforts. BUY BEFORE THE PRICE GOES HIGHER!

Gas Apparatus Construction Company Stock is Advancing.

OF THE NUMEROUS speculative investments open to the public the new issue of stock by The Gas Apparatus Construction Company is one of the most promising, and applications for this stock have been so numerous that the value of the stock has increased rapidly, and only after which the price will go higher and higher until the stocks bought today at this low figure may be worth at least $1,000 each. The reason for this marvelous enhancement is simple enough. It doesn't require argument to prove the value of a process by which a good fuel gas can be manufactured for less than five cents per thousand cubic feet.

This is Not an Experiment, the Process Has Already Been Thoroughly Demonstrated.

The Company's plant at Chester is now ready for operation, and the material to be used in the manufacture of the Gas has been ordered and will be shipped immediately.

LEAGUES WILL CLASH

Forty Conflicting Dates Between the National and American Teams During Season.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE COMPLETE

Each Club Will Play Ten Games With the Others on Home Grounds. Lajoie Rejects Offer of Handsome Salary.

New York, April 5.—The schedule committee of the National League of Baseball Clubs, at the Fifth Avenue hotel late yesterday afternoon, made public the result of their deliberations. The season opens on April 17 and closes on Oct. 4. The schedule consists of 140 games, each club playing 10 games with the other clubs on the home grounds. The eastern clubs will visit the west first.

There are 40 conflicting dates between the National and American teams during the season. Of this number Boston has 16, Philadelphia 10, Chicago 7 and St. Louis 7.

The only big holiday clash will be in Chicago on July 4, when the Boston and Chicago National league teams meet there, as do the Cleveland and Chicago American league clubs.

Philadelphia will open the season in New York on April 17, and the New York club will go to Philadelphia to open its season the following day. Boston opens the season on the 17th at Brooklyn. BRETHREN OF AMEN CORNER.

Feast and Frolic In Which Distinguished Men Paid Homage to Senator Platt.

New York, April 5.—"All sorts and conditions of men of all shades of political sentiment, but with mighty few prohibitionists," was the characterization by Chairman Edward G. Riggs of the great gathering of statesmen, politicians, jurists, journalists, divines and financiers who met Senator Thomas C. Platt last night at the dinner given in his honor by the "Brethren of the Amen Corner" at the Fifth Avenue hotel.

The great dining room of the hotel was filled with about 400 guests of the "Amen Corner Brotherhood," an association consisting of the Albany correspondents and the principal political writers on the newspapers of New York.

At the guests' table were Hon. Timothy L. Woodruff, Hon. Joseph H. Manley, August Belmont, Hon. Elihu Root, Archbishop Ireland, Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, Mayor Seth Low and ex-Governor Frank S. Black.

Roars of merriment greeted the parading through the room of an enormous picture representing Senator Platt as a Sunday school teacher addressing a class composed of President Roosevelt, Governor Odell, Lieutenant Governor Woodruff and Senator Depew. As the picture was borne round the room the assemblage sang "The Sunday School." Senator Platt was greeted with roars of applause and the singing of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" by the whole assemblage.

After Assistant District Attorney Paul Krotel had rendered "The Lost Job," a travesty on "The Lost Chord," the orchestra hailed Senator Depew, who was introduced by Mr. Riggs as "The Bridegroom," with the "Lohengrin Wedding March." Senator Depew made the principal address, which was mainly eulogistic of Senator Platt.

Massacre Order Produced.

Washington, April 5.—A little over a year ago the senate called on the secretary of war for information tending to show the genuineness of the alleged order for the massacre of the foreign residents of Manila on the evening and night of Feb. 15, 1899. The secretary of war has just made response, transmitting a photographic reproduction of the alleged massacre order, bearing date of Feb. 7, 1899, issued by the late General Luna. Confirmatory evidence is a statement by Aguinaldo affirming the genuineness of Luna's signature. On Feb. 23, 1899, a daring attack was made by the insurrectos on the American forces in Manila.

STRIKE IS CALLED OFF

Ten Thousand Pennsylvania Miners Likely to Go to Work Monday.

CONCESSIONS ON BOTH SIDES.

Reported Amicable Arrangements Made by Leaders of Warring Interests Bring Joy to Workers In Central Part of State.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 5.—As the result of a conference at the headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America yesterday, between President Mitchell, Bernard Rice, of Deerfield, Pa., president of District No. 2, Pennsylvania, and L. W. Robinson, of Rochester, N. Y., president of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg Coal company, it is believed that the strike of that company, called at Altoona, April 1, and involving 10,000 men, will be declared off. It is understood that both Mr. Rice and Mr. Robinson made concessions which probably will be acceptable to the miners.

Mr. Robinson left for Pittsburg last night to confer with other officials of the coal company, and President Mitchell and Mr. Rice placed themselves in communication with the district leaders at Altoona who are managing the strike. They were notified of the result of the conference, and the advisability of accepting the terms and calling off the strike will be left in their hands.

The conference between Commissioner Thomas S. Davis, representing the association of mine operators of Michigan; W. F. Williams, president of the Michigan mine workers, and President Mitchell, of the national organization of mine workers, was concluded last night without an agreement being reached in the strike now on in that state. Both interests refused to recede from their positions, and after a two days' session it was apparent that the conference was a failure. The strike affects about 1,700 men. The entire Michigan organization was called out April 1.

Dubois, Pa., April 5.—Authentic information was received in this city last night that the strike has been settled, and that Monday morning all mines of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company will resume operations. The announcement will bring cheer to 10,000 miners and their families, besides hundreds of railroad and shop men, as well as to every community in the region. Orders were issued last night at the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railroad offices to rush all empty cars to this end of the line to be in readiness for resumption.

SECOND FIRE IN A YEAR.

Furniture Store of Barker, Williams & Co. at Pittsburg Again Gutted.

Pittsburg, April 5.—Fire in the establishment of Barker, Williams & Co., furniture dealers at 817 Penn avenue, this city, yesterday caused damage to this and adjoining property estimated at over $80,000. Barker, Williams & Co. will lose $60,000 on stock; Orne & Howland, $5,000 on building; Household Credit Co., $15,000; Myer & Loral, druggists; G. H. Dietrich, shirt manufacturer, and Standard Printing company, $5,000 by water.

Practically the same property was damaged on April 24 last year by a fire that originated in the building occupied by Barker, Williams & Co At that time the property loss was close to $200,000, and Fireman Edward Hagmaier was crushed to death by the collapse of the upper floors in the Orne & Howland building. The fire yesterday started about 5 p. m., and was extinguished about 8 p. m. The losses are almost completely covered by insurance.

Two Trainmen Killed In Wreck.

Parnassus, Pa., April 5.—In a freight wreck near Cragdell station, on the Allegheny and Buffalo division of the Pennsylvania railroad, yesterday, Fireman B. H. Gheehan, of Williamsport, Pa., was crushed to death, and Brakeman W. B. Moshier was fatally scalded. Engineer James A. Williams was probably fatally injured. The wreck was caused by the train running into 100 tons of rock that had fallen from the hillside. The train was running at high speed, and the collision was terrific. The engine was thrown into the river, and a dozen cars were piled up.

Parricide Dotson Hanged.

Deer Lodge, Mont., April 5.—Clinton Dotson was hanged yesterday for participation in the murder of his father. Dotson went to the scaffold without fear or trembling. BUY BEFORE THE PRICE GOES HIGHER!

Gas Apparatus Construction Company Stock is Advancing.

OF THE NUMEROUS speculative investments open to the public the new issue of stock by The Gas Apparatus Construction Company is one of the most promising, and applications for this stock have been so numerous that the value of the stock has increased rapidly, and only after which the price will go higher and higher until the stocks bought today at this low figure may be worth at least $1,000 each. The reason for this marvelous enhancement is simple enough. It doesn't require argument to prove the value of a process by which a good fuel gas can be manufactured for less than five cents per thousand cubic feet.

This is Not an Experiment, the Process Has Already Been Thoroughly Demonstrated.

The Company's plant at Chester is now ready for operation, and the material to be used in the manufacture of the Gas has been ordered and will be shipped immediately.

UNSETTLING FACTORS

Labor Controversies Interrupt Production and Make Manufacturers Conservative

STAPLE LINES FREELY BOUGHT.

Iron and Steel Supplies Still Less Than the Demand—Price Drop Expected After July 1—Failures for the Week.

New York, April 5.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, said in part:

Labor controversies continue to be the only seriously disturbing events in the industrial world, and, while many disagreements have been promptly settled, others have appeared to interrupt production and make manufacturers conservative about new undertakings. Retail distribution of spring wearing apparel received a check from the more inclement weather in many localities, yet merchandise of most staple lines is purchased freely, and collections are satisfactory at nearly all points except the south.

Supplies of iron and steel do not seem in any immediate danger of overtaking demand. In fact, the prospect of labor disturbances on May 1 makes the situation still more uncertain, and those who hoped for equilibrium in the market by July 1 are less sanguine. Midsummer seems to be the dividing line as to quotations, prices after July 1 averaging about $1 per ton less than earlier deliveries, while those few fortunate sellers of spot material continue to secure large premiums. Pittsburg pig iron is definitely higher, and large contracts are still under negotiation between the Bessemer producers and the leading consumers. Coke continues to move a little more freely, yet prices are fully sustained.

It is between seasons for woolen goods and there is the usual quiet, except where buyers are anxiously looking for goods to replace deliveries interrupted by the strike at Olneyville and vicinity.

Widely divergent views as to the crop outlook resulted in a dull market for the cereals and only small changes in prices. Wheat receipts for the week were but 2,074,699 bushels, against 3,357,135 last year, while exports from all ports of the United States amounted to 3,365,070 bushels compared with 4,626,037 a year ago. There was not the customary loss in receipts of corn, 1,580,505 bushels, comparing with 1,602,027 a year ago, but Atlantic exports were only 204,356 bushels, against 3,076,891.

The course of commodity prices during the month of March indicates a seasonable tendency downward. Dun's ndex number, giving the aggregat quotations proportioned to consumption, was $99,222 on April 1, against $101,593 a month previous. This decline of 2.3 per cent was mainly due to the higher temperature which accelerated the output of garden and dairy products.

Failures in the United States this week were 167, against 195 last year, and 22 in Canada, against 29 last year.

CHINESE EXCLUSION BILL.

Both Branches of Congress Begin Consideration of Measure.

Washington, April 5.—The senate yesterday began consideration of the Chinese exclusion bill, Mr. Mitchell, of Oregon, making the opening speech. He pointed out forcefully the necessity for the exclusion of Chinese laborers and carefully and elaborately analyzed the bill. He said that it had been constructed on the basis of existing law, in the light of experience and of the decisions of the courts. While its provisions were drastic, the bill, he said, in some respects was more liberal than the Geary act.

The Indian appropriation bill was under consideration for a time, but was not completed.

The house also began consideration of the exclusion bill. No opponents of the general principle of exclusion appeared, but members were divided in their support of the two bills presented. Messrs. Hitt, of Illinois; Perkins, of New York, and Adams, of Pennsylvania, supported the majority bill and Messrs. Clark, of Missouri; Kahn, of California, and Naphen, of Massachusetts, spoke for the minority substitute.

Boers Were Repulsed.

London, April 5.—There was severe fighting all day long on March 31 in the neighborhood of Harts river, in the southwestern extremity of the Transvaal, between part of General Kitchener's force and the force of Generals Delarey and Kemp, resulting in the repulse of the Boers after heavy losses on both sides. One party of Canadian Rifles, commanded by Lieutenant Bruce Carruthers, held its post until every man was killed or wounded.

One Difference Not Settled.

Ironton, O., April 5.—The conference of mine officials and operators of this district succeeded in settling all disputes except entry driving which will be considered at an adjourned session, April 10. The strike ordered is withheld till then.

Selling Cigar Stubs Is a Lucrative Business In Naples.

Buying and selling cigar stubs is a large and lucrative business in the city of Naples, and many persons are engaged in it. Some of them have little stalls or shops near the docks, the arsenals and the manufacturing establishments where workingmen are in the habit of passing to and from their tasks. Others, with less capital, have little stands at street corners, a board laid across a saw horse, upon which their stock in trade is displayed, while the petty dealers in this line of business exhibit their stock in little piles upon the sidewalk, sometimes not even a newspaper being under them.

The supply comes from the cafes, restaurants, hotels and other public places. Men and women pick over the garbage heaps and the dust boxes, and boys run up and down the pavements in front of the hotels early every morning looking for "snipes." Some of the restaurant and cafe keepers sell the privilege of picking up the cigar stumps in their places to dealers, and the proceeds amount to a considerable sum during the year. In other places it is one of the perquisites of the head waiter.

Some of the stubs are taken to factories, where they are cut up and manufactured into cigarettes and smoking tobacco, but the greater part of them are sold to the lower classes of workingmen, sailors and dock wallopers, who smoke them in their pipes. At the entrance of the navy yard, which is upon one of the most frequented streets in Naples and in a very conspicuous place, half a dozen of these secondhand cigar dealers can be found when the men are coming out of the gates at the close of their day's work. The employees are not allowed to smoke inside, and their wages do not permit them to indulge in the luxury of cigars or even smoking tobacco at first hand, so, for a centissimo, which is the smallest coin imaginable—one-fifth of 1 cent—they buy a cigar stub, crumble it up in their hands and cram it into their pipes.—Chicago Herald.

GRANT AND OCHILTREE.

The Grievance the President Had Against the Colonel.

"After the war," said a veteran officeholder, "a warm friendship sprang up between General Grant and Colonel Tom Ochiltree, although they had fought on opposite sides. When Grant appointed a large number of people who had been under him to federal offices, he also appointed Ochiltree. Tom had been 'under him' in a sense. Tom was made United States marshal in Texas.

"Well, you know, in those days Tom took a very deep interest in the ponies and was a sort of patron saint of racing in the new southwest. He was so much admired by horsemen generally that it became quite the thing for owners to name their horses after him. At one time there were not less than a dozen horses running at various tracks under the name of Tom Ochiltree.

"Everything went lovely until Tom came up to Washington, several months after assuming his new duties. In the course of his visit he called at the White House for a conference with the president. After talking generalities for awhile Tom noticed that the president seemed to have something on his mind—didn't appear to be as frank and cordial as usual. He finally asked General Grant what the trouble was, hinting that the chief executive might not be satisfied with the manner in which the marshal's office was being conducted.

"'Well, I'll tell you,' said the president, 'I don't like the way you've been running about the country, following the races. I see by the sporting columns of the papers that first you are in Louisville, then you're in New York, next you're in Saratoga and next somewhere out west. I would rather you stayed at home and looked after your office.'"—Washington Post.

The First Skirmish.

Newlywed (after the first cloud has passed)—Kitty, you must not feel unhappy. Why, is my opinion never to count for anything?

Kitty (after thinking it over)—Surely, sometimes, when we have the same opinion, yours will count, and when we differ mine will.—New York Times.

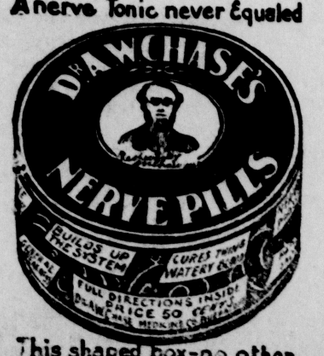

His Speech.

"I wonder what he meant," said the man who had been trying to make a speech.

"What he said, very likely," some one suggested.

"Yes, I know, but he said my flow of words was continuous without continuity."—Chicago Post.

AN UNFAMILIAR TEXT.

But It Was a Forcible Illustration of a Great Truth.

Several years ago there labored in one of the western villages of Minnesota a preacher who was always in the habit of selecting his texts from the Old Testament and particularly some portion of the history of Noah. No matter what the occasion was, he would always find some parallel incident from the history of this great character that would readily serve as a text or illustration.

At one time he was called upon to unite the daughter of the village mayor and a prominent attorney in the holy bonds of matrimony. Two little boys, knowing his determination to give them a portion of the sacred history touching Noah's marriage, hit upon the novel idea of pasting together two leaves in the family Bible so as to connect, without any apparent break, the marriage of Noah and the description of the ark of the covenant.

When the noted guests were all assembled and the contracting parties with attendants in their respective stations, the preacher began the ceremonies by reading the following text: "And when Noah was one hundred and forty years old he took unto himself a wife," then, turning the page, he continued, "300 cubits in length, 50 cubits in width and 30 cubits in depth and within and without besmeared with pitch." The story seemed a little strong, but he could not doubt the Bible, and, after reading it once more and reflecting a moment, he turned to the startled assemblage with these remarks, "My beloved brethren, this is the first time in the history of my life that my attention has been called to this important passage of the Scriptures, but it seems to me that it is one of the most forcible illustrations of that grand eternal truth that the nature of woman is exceedingly difficult to comprehend.—Starlight Messenger.

Value of Time.

The value of odd minutes is illustrated by a story told in a curious little volume of advice printed in England. A large firm required a manager for one of its departments and appointed 12 o'clock for arrangement of terms with the selected applicant. He arrived at five minutes past 12, to find a dozen directors waiting, the chairman watch in hand. The chairman announced that they could not engage a subordinate who had wasted an hour of his employers' time, and on the applicant deprecating such exaggeration the chairman explained that each director had wasted five minutes and that made an hour in all.

Dickens Said She Was a Woman.

It is said of George Eliot's literary style that its most marked characteristic is sympathy. And long before her identity had become known Charles Dickens, a singularly acute critic of his own art, detected her sex by this undercurrent of womanly sympathy. He had been reading "Scenes of Clerical Life," which had been sent to him by the publisher, and on putting the book aside he said, "Well, this writer possesses great ability, but I should say, despite the name, that George Eliot is a woman."

Travelers to California

Naturally desire to see the grandest and most impressive scenery en route. This you will do by selecting the Denver & Rio Grande and Rio Grande Western, "The Scenic Line of the World," and "The Great Salt Lake Route," in one or both directions, as this line has two separate routes across the Rocky mountains between Denver and Ogden. Tickets reading via this route are available either via its main line through the Royal George, Leadville, over Tennessee Pass, through the Canon of the Grand river and Glenwood Springs, or via the line over Marshall Pass and through the Black Canon of the Gunnison, thus enabling the traveler to use one of the above routes going and the other returning. Three splendidly equipped fast trains are operated to and from the Pacific coast, which carry through standard sleepers daily between Chicago, St. Louis, Denver and San Francisco. FROM HEADQUARTERS.

Manager Blood Wine Company Replies to Numerous Local Inquiries.

SOME INTERESTING FACTS MADE PUBLIC FOR THE FIRST TIME.

The following letter has been received by us, and will no doubt interest many of you on account of containing the replies from the "Blood Wine" company to the questions asked by several of our citizens.

DISCOVERER OF BLOOD WINE.

TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Sir—We have had a great many letters from people of your city since "Blood Wine" was first introduced, and while we have tried to reply direct to each inquiry, there may be some we have overlooked. If so, we wish to apologize; and when we say that our mail amounts to over a thousand letters a day, we are sure that your readers will pardon us, and accept this letter in lieu of a personal one. Many people ask us if "Blood Wine" will cure consumption. To these we will say that as far as we have been able to learn, excepting in a few cases, where the disease was of old standing and advanced to a state where the lungs were literally decomposed before our treatment was commenced, "Blood Wine" has cured this and the allied diseases, which include coughs, colds, bronchial affection, catarrh of the head and throat, pneumonia and weakness of the lungs. It will heal the lungs and relieves the tender feelings.

Many have inquired about kidney troubles—to all so affected we can truthfully recommend "Blood Wine." Excepting in advanced stages of Bright's Disease it is almost certain to correct the wrong activity and restore normal conditions, and we have known it to bring about really remarkable cures of Bright's Disease.

To the elderly gentleman who states that he has chronic constipation, brought on by close office work and sedentary habits, we would suggest the immediate use of "Blood Wine." Take in moderate doses at first; to assist the medicine, take some form of exercise after arising in the morning, if only for a few minutes. You are sure of being benefited.

To the woman who signs herself only "Mrs. B."—we would say—take "Blood Wine" in the morning before breakfast as directed on the bottle. We are sure you can retain it. If you noted a slight burning in the stomach at first, eat a very light breakfast. You will soon be so you can take a hearty meal and enjoy it, and you will find the color will return to your cheeks in a week or so, and your lameness, soreness and dragged-out feelings will all disappear. Then you will be able to do your housework.

To Mr. R.—We cannot do anything for your rupture. This is an affliction out of the reach of "Blood Wine," and should be submitted to a specialist skilled in such matters.

In conclusion we will advise all who are interested in "Blood Wine" to call at their druggists and they will get more complete and definite information than we can give in this brief letter. You can sample "Blood Wine" there free of charge. Read the literature and get some facts that will appeal to you seriously. We could fill this entire page with letters of endorsements, and words of praise from thousands of sufferers who, by the aid of "Blood Wine" have been lifted out of the clutches of disease and restored to full health and vigor. It is our aim to make friends everywhere. We are careful to make honest statements, and not mislead anyone. "Blood Wine" is not a cure all. It has no supernatural characteristics or the power to make the grave give up its dead. But in several forms of disease all those for which it is recommended, it will bring about thorough, permanent, speedy cures in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred.

Yours truly,

LOUIS DAUDELIN CO.

"Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle, but you can sample it free of charge at Will Reed's and Hodson's drug stores.

UNSETTLING FACTORS

Labor Controversies Interrupt Production and Make Manufacturers Conservative

STAPLE LINES FREELY BOUGHT.

Iron and Steel Supplies Still Less Than the Demand—Price Drop Expected After July 1—Failures for the Week.

New York, April 5.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, said in part:

Labor controversies continue to be the only seriously disturbing events in the industrial world, and, while many disagreements have been promptly settled, others have appeared to interrupt production and make manufacturers conservative about new undertakings. Retail distribution of spring wearing apparel received a check from the more inclement weather in many localities, yet merchandise of most staple lines is purchased freely, and collections are satisfactory at nearly all points except the south.

Supplies of iron and steel do not seem in any immediate danger of overtaking demand. In fact, the prospect of labor disturbances on May 1 makes the situation still more uncertain, and those who hoped for equilibrium in the market by July 1 are less sanguine. Midsummer seems to be the dividing line as to quotations, prices after July 1 averaging about $1 per ton less than earlier deliveries, while those few fortunate sellers of spot material continue to secure large premiums. Pittsburg pig iron is definitely higher, and large contracts are still under negotiation between the Bessemer producers and the leading consumers. Coke continues to move a little more freely, yet prices are fully sustained.

It is between seasons for woolen goods and there is the usual quiet, except where buyers are anxiously looking for goods to replace deliveries interrupted by the strike at Olneyville and vicinity.

Widely divergent views as to the crop outlook resulted in a dull market for the cereals and only small changes in prices. Wheat receipts for the week were but 2,074,699 bushels, against 3,357,135 last year, while exports from all ports of the United States amounted to 3,365,070 bushels compared with 4,626,037 a year ago. Naturally desire to see the grandest and most impressive scenery en route. This you will do by selecting the Denver & Rio Grande and Rio Grande Western, "The Scenic Line of the World," and "The Great Salt Lake Route," in one or both directions, as this line has two separate routes across the Rocky mountains between Denver and Ogden. Tickets reading via this route are available either via its main line through the Royal George, Leadville, over Tennessee Pass, through the Canon of the Grand river and Glenwood Springs, or via the line over Marshall Pass and through the Black Canon of the Gunnison, thus enabling the traveler to use one of the above routes going and the other returning. Three splendidly equipped fast trains are operated to and from the Pacific coast, which carry through standard sleepers daily between Chicago, St. Louis, Denver and San Francisco. Dining cars (service a la carte) on all through trains. If you contemplate such a trip, let us send you beautifully illustrated pamphlets, free. S. K. Hooper, G. P. & T. A., Denver, Col. 7-tf-3-tf

FROM HEADQUARTERS.

Manager Blood Wine Company Replies to Numerous Local Inquiries.

SOME INTERESTING FACTS MADE PUBLIC FOR THE FIRST TIME.

The following letter has been received by us, and will no doubt interest many of you on account of containing the replies from the "Blood Wine" company to the questions asked by several of our citizens.

DISCOVERER OF BLOOD WINE.

TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Sir—We have had a great many letters from people of your city since "Blood Wine" was first introduced, and while we have tried to reply direct to each inquiry, there may be some we have overlooked. If so, we wish to apologize; and when we say that our mail amounts to over a thousand letters a day, we are sure that your readers will pardon us, and accept this letter in lieu of a personal one. Many people ask us if "Blood Wine" will cure consumption. To these we will say that as far as we have been able to learn, excepting in a few cases, where the disease was of old standing and advanced to a state where the lungs were literally decomposed before our treatment was commenced, "Blood Wine" has cured this and the allied diseases, which include coughs, colds, bronchial affection, catarrh of the head and throat, pneumonia and weakness of the lungs. It will heal the lungs and relieves the tender feelings.

Many have inquired about kidney troubles—to all so affected we can truthfully recommend "Blood Wine." Excepting in advanced stages of Bright's Disease it is almost certain to correct the wrong activity and restore normal conditions, and we have known it to bring about really remarkable cures of Bright's Disease.

To the elderly gentleman who states that he has chronic constipation, brought on by close office work and sedentary habits, we would suggest the immediate use of "Blood Wine." Take in moderate doses at first; to assist the medicine, take some form of exercise after arising in the morning, if only for a few minutes. You are sure of being benefited.

To the woman who signs herself only "Mrs. B."—we would say—take "Blood Wine" in the morning before breakfast as directed on the bottle. We are sure you can retain it. If you noted a slight burning in the stomach at first, eat a very light breakfast. You will soon be so you can take a hearty meal and enjoy it, and you will find the color will return to your cheeks in a week or so, and your lameness, soreness and dragged-out feelings will all disappear. Then you will be able to do your housework.

To Mr. R.—We cannot do anything for your rupture. This is an affliction out of the reach of "Blood Wine," and should be submitted to a specialist skilled in such matters.

In conclusion we will advise all who are interested in "Blood Wine" to call at their druggists and they will get more complete and definite information than we can give in this brief letter. You can sample "Blood Wine" there free of charge. Read the literature and get some facts that will appeal to you seriously. We could fill this entire page with letters of endorsements, and words of praise from thousands of sufferers who, by the aid of "Blood Wine" have been lifted out of the clutches of disease and restored to full health and vigor. It is our aim to make friends everywhere. We are careful to make honest statements, and not mislead anyone. "Blood Wine" is not a cure all. It has no supernatural characteristics or the power to make the grave give up its dead. But in several forms of disease all those for which it is recommended, it will bring about thorough, permanent, speedy cures in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred.

Yours truly,
LOUIS DAUDELIN CO.

"Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle, but you can sample it free of charge at Will Reed's and Hodson's drug stores.

He has absolute faith in its merits.

Mr. P. J. Green, veterinary surgeon, says: "When attending a sick horse belonging to Mr. G. H. Gardiner, of 168 Jackson street, he remarked to me that the horse seemed to be in pain. I replied that I was the sicker of the two, as I could at that time scarcely straighten up with my back from lameness, weakness and severe pains. He asked me what my symptoms were and I explained to him that I had suffered for a number of years from my kidneys, that I had attacks at times when nothing helped me, and it was agony to get around, but that I could not endure idleness. The secretions from the kidneys were very high colored and acidious; that I had spells of dizziness when I could see black specks floating before my eyes and felt generally broken up. He looked up and said he had the very thing needed to cure me in his house —Doan's Kidney Pills. He went into the house and brought me eight pills. I took them with me and used them two at a dose. The effect was astonishing. I felt it almost at once, and went to the W. & W. pharmacy and bought a box and took them. The encouragement held out to me by the first eight pills was not mythical, as by their continual use the improvement continued, and I consider no expression of praise too strong for Doan's Kidney Pills. In short, they are ne plus ultra."

College Strong Men Now Undergoing Annual Tests.

OBJECT OF THE COMPETITION.

System Was Devised by Conference of Gymnasium Directors — Last Year's Leaders—Manner of Measuring Muscle Power.

Intercollegiate strong men are very prominent just now. The yearly contests to establish the national amateur champions in this branch of athletics are now taking place, and soon the official reports of institutions from the Atlantic to the Pacific will be compared, and the winners will be made known. Ever since the establishment of these tests, ratified by physical directors of the various universities and colleges in America, college men have been greatly interested in the claims of their alma maters. The first recognized test occurred in 1898, and it brought forth several phenomenal performers. The object of this competition is to bring into close focus the athletic status of the various contesting institutions, and at a meeting the gymnasium directors devised a system whereby the relative strength of the fifty strongest men might be determined.

In order to establish a measure a few simple strength tests were decided on. These tests were to take place simultaneously in the competing institutions. It was not necessary that the contestants should meet in one place, but that their examination should be held in the presence of at least three authorized persons of each institution. The chairman of this body of examiners is Dr. D. A. Sargent of Harvard university, the other members of the deciding committee being Dr. James W. Seaver of Yale university and Dr. Watson L. Savage of Columbia university, New York city.

The strength tests used in making up the total schedule of the competitors are: First, strength of back; second, strength of legs; third, strength of right forearm; fourth, strength of left forearm; fifth, strength of lungs; sixth, upper arms and chest; seventh, biceps and back. These tests are on a uniform system.

In the matter of the strength of back the apparatus used is a spring dynamometer of a capacity of 900 kilos. For the back lift and also for the test of leg strength the apparatus is the same. For the forearm test the instrument used is a spring dynamometer of a capacity of 110 kilos. For the lung test there is used a spring manometer of the steam gauge pattern, with a registering capacity of forty hectograms, or about eight and three-quarter pounds. In the test of the upper arms or biceps the apparatus used is a pair of parallel bars which stand at least five feet from the floor and eighteen inches apart. The strength test for the upper arms and back together is a horizontal bar of about one inch in diameter, suspended eight feet from the floor. Taking hold of the horizontal bar, the contestant draws himself up until his chin is level with the bar.

Each contestant must be a bona fide student of the institution in which he is enrolled and must conform to the description of an amateur as defined by the Intercollegiate association.

Columbia university is the leader in the intercollegiate contest to date, having recorded a total strength score of 65,271.5 points. Harvard occupies second place, having scored 64,090.4. Minnesota is third, having scored 56,160.4. Amherst and Wesleyan follow, with a strength score of 48,742.9 and 45,159.2 respectively.

The strongest man of all the competing colleges last year was R. W. Allis of Minnesota, whose total was 1,940.9 points. Following next in order is C. G. Herbert of Harvard, with a total score of 1,869.5. The third is A. Tyng, also of Harvard, with a total score of 1,709.2. The fourth is Harold H. Weekes of Columbia, with a total score of 1,709 points. These are the four strongest men of the competing colleges.

MADE A GOOD IMPRESSION.

A Case of Well Developed Nerve, Coupled With Wit.

"There is absolute wit in some men's nerve," said a business man to a reporter. "My partner and I, with the intention of expanding our business, about a year ago decided to send a representative through the south. We looked over the field carefully and finally picked out a young man who was possessed of good address and who, we felt sure, would do the work.

"He had been convivial in former days, but his deportment had been such for a year that it made us feel confident he would do the proper thing. He was given $400 for expenses and was started out on the mission. It was the understanding that he was to make a daily report of his efforts.

"Two months passed by, and we never heard from him. We telegraphed repeatedly to different towns that were on his itinerary, but not a word could be learned regarding his whereabouts. Finally one day a hurried telegram, collect, came. It read:

"'I am not selling many goods, but am making a fine impression. Wire $100 quick.'

"The nerve of the fellow got our nerve, and, do you know, we wired him the $100, and afterward he made good. We have never asked him what he did during the two months, and he has never broached the subject to us. It was the wit that pleased us."—Washington Star.

Nature's Wonders.

The common flea leaps 200 times its own length. To show like agility a man six feet tall would have to leap a distance of 1,200 feet. The cheese mite is about one-quarter of an inch in length, yet it has been seen to take the tip of its tail in its mouth and then, letting go with a jerk, to leap out of a vessel six inches in depth. To equal this a man would have to jump out of a well from a depth of 144 feet.

And equally strange things are found among the plants and vegetables. A well known student of nature once tried the growing force of a squash. When it was eighteen days old and measured twenty-seven inches in circumference, he fixed a sort of harness around it, with a long lever attached. The power of the squash was measured by the weight it lifted, the weight being fixed to the lever. When it was twenty days old, two days after the harness was fixed on it, it lifted sixty pounds. On the nineteenth day it lifted 5,000 pounds.

The Three Meal Habit.

Our three meal habit is a fearful tax on our working capacity. It trebles the temptation to overeating. Our champions stagger under the weight of a physiological handicap. One-half of the functional energy of the system is diverted by the exigencies of digestion No other hygienic mistake has done so much to make us a generation of dyspeptics as the custom of after dinner work. Its victims, moreover, incur the risk of contracting that form of moral dyspepsia called pessimism. It tends to rob the working day of its reward —Success.

A Good Thing.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in Medicine. It quickly cures Coughs, Colds and all Lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which it rapidly increasing sale each season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. MADE A GOOD IMPRESSION.

A Case of Well Developed Nerve, Coupled With Wit.

"There is absolute wit in some men's nerve," said a business man to a reporter. "My partner and I, with the intention of expanding our business, about a year ago decided to send a representative through the south. We looked over the field carefully and finally picked out a young man who was possessed of good address and who, we felt sure, would do the work.

"He had been convivial in former days, but his deportment had been such for a year that it made us feel confident he would do the proper thing. He was given $400 for expenses and was started out on the mission. It was the understanding that he was to make a daily report of his efforts.

"Two months passed by, and we never heard from him. We telegraphed repeatedly to different towns that were on his itinerary, but not a word could be learned regarding his whereabouts. Finally one day a hurried telegram, collect, came. It read:

"'I am not selling many goods, but am making a fine impression. Wire $100 quick.'

"The nerve of the fellow got our nerve, and, do you know, we wired him the $100, and afterward he made good. We have never asked him what he did during the two months, and he has never broached the subject to us. It was the wit that pleased us."—Washington Star.

Nature's Wonders.

The common flea leaps 200 times its own length. To show like agility a man six feet tall would have to leap a distance of 1,200 feet. The cheese mite is about one-quarter of an inch in length, yet it has been seen to take the tip of its tail in its mouth and then, letting go with a jerk, to leap out of a vessel six inches in depth. To equal this a man would have to jump out of a well from a depth of 144 feet.

And equally strange things are found among the plants and vegetables. A well known student of nature once tried the growing force of a squash. When it was eighteen days old and measured twenty-seven inches in circumference, he fixed a sort of harness around it, with a long lever attached. The power of the squash was measured by the weight it lifted, the weight being fixed to the lever. When it was twenty days old, two days after the harness was fixed on it, it lifted sixty pounds. On the nineteenth day it lifted 5,000 pounds.

The Three Meal Habit.

Our three meal habit is a fearful tax on our working capacity. It trebles the temptation to overeating. Our champions stagger under the weight of a physiological handicap. One-half of the functional energy of the system is diverted by the exigencies of digestion No other hygienic mistake has done so much to make us a generation of dyspeptics as the custom of after dinner work. Its victims, moreover, incur the risk of contracting that form of moral dyspepsia called pessimism. It tends to rob the working day of its reward —Success.

PROSTHETIC DENTISTRY

A VERY IMPORTANT BRANCH.

Those who have been unfortunate in losing their teeth entirely, either by excessive use of medicine or by dread of having them taken care of by a dentist, or by neglecting them, must, of course, submit to the last resort,—wearing artificial teeth, or in other words, a plate. This special feature in dentistry needs special care and study of facial expression. After the teeth have been extracted, the contour of the face sinks and changes the expression entirely to a distressing appearance, making it necessary to insert plates at once, (such as we term temporary ones,) which retain the original expression and will give good satisfaction until the mouth is in the proper condition to receive the permanent sets. In that way the same natural expression can be preserved. OUR method of making artificial teeth, we think, is a capital way to please both patient and dentist—why? Well, in the first place, we make a proof of all our work in this special line, which enables our patients to see for themselves what they are getting; whether the mouth is too full or too much sunken, or whether the teeth are arranged to satisfy the patient, for it is our aim to give all who patronize us perfect satisfaction.

We find that by making a proof first that we obtain much better results, as you will readily understand, and in case there should be anything unsatisfactory, it can be changed in a very few minutes, while, after a plate is finished a new impression would be necessary and consequently cause the patient much time and trouble.

We strictly guarantee our plates to be of the best material that can be bought—which are known the world over by all dentists as the best teeth made. Our vulcanite rubber is of the very best American quality.

In conclusion, we absolutely defy anyone to say that we can't use the best material, and will forfeit $50 to anyone who can in any instance show a case from The Pittsburg Dental Parlors but that is of the best material only. Our price for the best teeth manufactured is only $8.00, and we will do strictly as we advertise, for we are satisfied with smaller profits and more of them.

"ORTHODONTIA"

Or Better Known As Straightening Irregular Teeth.

This explanation will give the reader an idea of the treatment and its beautiful results. Children can have their teeth straightened with much comfort, as the bones are much susceptible to treatment and give more readily, therefore the most satisfactory results can be obtained in the younger ones. In older people, say after 20 years of age, the bones are fully developed and it requires a longer time, as the bones are more resistful; yet we have in our possession satisfactory proofs that we have been successful in many cases. We can produce the models before and after treatment of patients, and can refer you to them if you deem it necessary. This is comparatively a new branch in dentistry, and we operate under the angle system entirely, this being the latest and simplest method, which has for the past five years been taught in one of our leading Dental Colleges in Chicago. Our work has proven very satisfactory in this important branch of the profession. Come and have your teeth examined and get OUR price.

22K., GOLD CROWNS.

We are happy to say that crowning the teeth has been the most succesful treatment yet devised for those teeth which are too frail to bear filling, producing the most substantial and lasting results that can be applied to the mouth. It is also beautiful and natural, and the most useful substitute ever made to take the place of an imperfect tooth. We gladly submit for the benefit of those not familiar with the system of crowning, the following description:

Because of the peculiar condition of a tooth, it is unable to retain a filling satisfactorily, and in such cases resort may be made to a crown—either of gold or porcelain facing. These crowns may be made by the operator to conform perfectly to the shape and size of the natural tooth, then by careful antiseptic treatment, cement the crown on the tooth or root, which will absolutely prevent further decay.

Our crowns are made of strictly 22k. gold; not as thin as paper, but of 28 and 30-gauge gold, whichever the case may demand. Our price $5.00. None better.

PAINLESS EXTRACTION OF TEETH

The extracting of the teeth seems to be the most dreaded of all the operations coming under the head of dentistry, yet in spite of all that can be done, some teeth invariably reach that stage of decay where extraction is absolutely necessary. Well, then, what is to be done? People cannot lay awake night after night with a jumping toothache, so they must sooner or later submit to the extraction of the tooth. The Pittsburg Dental Parlors have in use one of the finest preparations for the painless extraction of teeth that ever existed, and we have testimonial after testimonial to that effect. We can extract from one to fifteen teeth without the least pain or danger, by freezing the gums with this preparation, and we will leave it with yourself whether you have ever heard of freezing the gums before, unless it was spoken of in the advertisements of The Pittsburg Dental Parlors. We have been using it for the past four years and find it a valuable anaesthetic for the painless extraction of teeth. We also administer gas to those who prefer it, but having one tooth taken out by the use of our freezing process will convince you that it speaks for itself.

No charge for the extracting; no extra charge for the anaesthetic when you want artificial teeth.

FILLING THE TEETH

AND IT'S IMPORTANCE.

It is always desirable and of great importance to save as much of the tooth as possible and when the destruction of a tooth has not proceeded far enough to require extraction or even crowning, further progress of the disease may be stopped by filling. In this branch of dentistry The Pittsburg Dental Parlors have won general recognition among the people for superior methods of antiseptically treating and filling the teeth. We insist on the most careful examination, in order that the precise nature and extent of the trouble may be definitely determined—whether the nerve is to be devitalized (killed) or whatever course is to be adopted.

An incompetent dentist will betray his incompetency in the matter of filling teeth more quickly than in any other branch of his profession. Various materials, such as gold as a standard, Silver, Amalgam, Platinum, Porcelain, Cement, etc., are used in filling the cavities of partially decayed teeth, and require knowledge and good judgment as to which one of these filling materials shall be used in any particular case. Some cavities require a filling that is absolutely a non-conductor of heat and cold, while others require that the base or foundation be of one material and the covering of another. Now, when these points have been settled, the filling must be inserted in such a manner as to remain firmly in place. Any person who has had the exasperating experience of losing a filling from a tooth knows how important it is to patronize a first-class dentist. When a filling is not skilfully done there is likely,very likely, to be toothache, abscess, swelling of the gums and face, and all the horrible suffering that these conditions imply. But on the other hand, should a tooth be antiseptically treated and carefully filled with the proper filling material, it certainly should last a life-time.

Car fare refunded to those living out of East Liverpool who have their work done at the Pittsburg Dental Parlors.

OUR SPECIALTY

CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK.

Our specialty is crown and bridge work, or teeth without plates, as you may choose to call it. This is the latest improved method of attaching gold and porcelain crowns to the roots of natural teeth, the support of which is on either end; upon these are crowns, thus relieving the gums from pressure necessary to support the artificial teeth when they are wholly gone. This, of course, does away with the wearing of plates in a large majority of cases, where this cumbersome device was formerly employed. Every wearer of plates will readily appreciate what this invention means.

By the improvements which have been introduced into the practice of dentistry it is now possible to wear a complete upper and lower set of artificial teeth without the use of plates, providing there are three roots or teeth of the natural ones left intact and properly distributed, as these serve as abutments or piers, as those of an ordinary bridge.

ARE CLEAN INSTRUMENTS IMPORTANT?

This is indeed a very important point to be noticed. How disagreeable it must be for patients to sit down in a dentist's chair and have excavators, burrs, probes, etc., used in their mouths, not knowing whether they have been properly or thoroughly sterilized (cleansed). Even if they have been that thought flashes through their minds: "I wonder if that dentist cleaned this instrument since he used it last?" We have just within arm's reach of our operating chair a sterilizer with boiling water always ready to place the instruments in to be sterilized immediately after use, and the patients can feel easy when they can see with their own eyes that asceptic precautions are taken in this most essential part of our work. A clean and thoroughly sterilized instrument, ready for use, not only pleases the patient, but lightens the conscience of the operator.

ELECTRIC DENTISTRY

The Pittsburg Dental Parlors, situated in the Diamond, owned and managed by Dr. J. M. Little, is one of the most complete dental offices of the day. He has fitted his offices with the latest electrical appliances which enable him with his skilled hands to do the work with considerably less pain to the patient, as well as with more rapidity, which the people of this advanced age demand. The Electric Engine which all people dread, is one of wonderful pain-saving in both drilling and grinding the teeth. The Electric Water Heater is of great importance also, having at arm's reach tepid or hot water in an instant. The Electric fans will be a treat to the doctor as well as add to the comfort of his patients. The fountain Spray Spittoon connected to the chair, not only has the crystal glass bowl and sparkling water constantly flowing, but has in connection the Saliva Ejector, which carries the saliva from the mouth, permitting the patient to rest in ease, while heretofore it would be constantly running down the throat and causing all the inconvenience imaginable. His office will be lighted with electricity throughout, making everything pleasing to the eye.

Dr. Little's methods in dentistry have won him a very large practice, giving the quickest, easiest and most lasting results, and his efforts to advance will ever more be appreciated by all who come to his office, which is open evenings, for the benefit of those who cannot come during the day.

This, of course, does away with the wearing of plates in a large majority of cases, where this cumbersome device was formerly employed. Every wearer of plates will readily appreciate what this invention means.

By the improvements which have been introduced into the practice of dentistry it is now possible to wear a complete upper and lower set of artificial teeth without the use of plates, providing there are three roots or teeth of the natural ones left intact and properly distributed, as these serve as abutments or piers, as those of an ordinary bridge.

ARE CLEAN INSTRUMENTS IMPORTANT?

This is indeed a very important point to be noticed. How disagreeable it must be for patients to sit down in a dentist's chair and have excavators, burrs, probes, etc., used in their mouths, not knowing whether they have been properly or thoroughly sterilized (cleansed). Even if they have been that thought flashes through their minds: "I wonder if that dentist cleaned this instrument since he used it last?" We have just within arm's reach of our operating chair a sterilizer with boiling water always ready to place the instruments in to be sterilized immediately after use, and the patients can feel easy when they can see with their own eyes that asceptic precautions are taken in this most essential part of our work. A clean and thoroughly sterilized instrument, ready for use, not only pleases the patient, but lightens the conscience of the operator.

ELECTRIC DENTISTRY

The Pittsburg Dental Parlors, situated in the Diamond, owned and managed by Dr. J. M. Little, is one of the most complete dental offices of the day. He has fitted his offices with the latest electrical appliances which enable him with his skilled hands to do the work with considerably less pain to the patient, as well as with more rapidity, which the people of this advanced age demand. The Electric Engine which all people dread, is one of wonderful pain-saving in both drilling and grinding the teeth. The Electric Water Heater is of great importance also, having at arm's reach tepid or hot water in an instant. The Electric fans will be a treat to the doctor as well as add to the comfort of his patients. The fountain Spray Spittoon connected to the chair, not only has the crystal glass bowl and sparkling water constantly flowing, but has in connection the Saliva Ejector, which carries the saliva from the mouth, permitting the patient to rest in ease, while heretofore it would be constantly running down the throat and causing all the inconvenience imaginable. His office will be lighted with electricity throughout, making everything pleasing to the eye.

Dr. Little's methods in dentistry have won him a very large practice, giving the quickest, easiest and most lasting results, and his efforts to advance will ever more be appreciated by all who come to his office, which is open evenings, for the benefit of those who cannot come during the day.

19TH YEAR. NO. 81. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., SATURDAY, APRIL 5, 1902—TWELVE PAGES. TWO CENTS.

QUESTIONS OF IMPORTANCE TO BE SETTLED ON MONDAY

School Bond Issue and Registration Are to Be Voted Upon.

FORMER WILL BE CARRIED

The Need of Registration Long Apparent to Republican Leaders.

THE PROPOSITION FAVORED

By the Central Committee for the Past Four Years—Popular Opinion on the Subject Both Pro And Con As Expressed in Interviews.

Two important propositions are to be voted on at Monday's election. The board of education will ask the people to permit the sale of $20,000 bonds for the erection of a school house in Bradshaw addition, and it is likely the issue will be authorized.

The question of registration for East Liverpool is one that promises to be interesting, and from the expressions of citizens the result of the vote is in doubt.

The question though non-partisan in its effects is purely a Republican measure here and has been advocated by the leaders of the party for a long time. Four years ago the Republican city central committee took up the matter and not a session of the legislature has since been held that an effort has not been made to have the bill passed.

City Clerk J. N. Hanley was the secretary of the committee, and he, with Joseph Betz and Senator W. V. Blake, have been indefatigable in their efforts to secure the passage of the bill. The city committee has had the matter up in some phase at almost every meeting.

The need of registration for East Liverpool is apparent to every thinking man. Situated as it is right on the border of three states there is chance for fraud at every election, with nothing at present to prevent. There is not another town in the state, with the possible exception of Cincinnati, where a system of registration would be of more practical benefit. In Cincinnati it has been found a help rather than a hindrance to the Republican party, whose majority has steadily grown under it. Youngstown and many other smaller cities of Ohio have registration and find it to work well. There is no dissatisfaction with the law in any of those towns, so far as is known.

An estimate of the cost of registration for two elections a year, made by a prominent Republican who has long served on the central committee is that the cost would not exceed two cents per year per capita of the population. This he considered a very small amount compared with the benefit of pure elections. He declared that no city which had ever tried registration would give it up.

A number of citizens were interviewed today, both those who are for and those who are against the proposition. The result follows:

J. G. Lee: It is a hard matter to get the vote out at an election, and if the voters would be compelled to register, it would still be harder.

A. T. Kelly, First National bank: It is a good thing.

W. A. Weaver: The city is now overburdened with expense, and as we have no legal knowledge of illegal voting there is not much use to pass a registration bill.

Conrad Goodballet, Prohibition candidate for council, Fifth ward: It is a good thing and we should have it by all means.

Irwin Dunlap, Citizens' National bank: Think it would be a good thing.

Richard Chambers, First National bank: 'Tis a good move.

Roland W. Patterson: I have not read much about the question, but I would be favorable to such an action.

George H. Owen, former chairman of the Republican central committee: I have always been in favor of it, and I have not changed my mind. The city is growing so fast now that the need of registering its voters is greater than ever. The cost is too small to talk about. Look at the testimony of people of all parties in cities where registration has been tried. Why, if there should be an attempt to deprive them of it, there would be a mighty protest. I am in favor of honest and fair elections, and these are exactly what we cannot have so long as any stranger is allowed to walk into any polling place, give his name and vote. As to the claim that the vote would be reduced, let it be so if it must. A man who would not take the trouble to register in order to vote does not deserve a vote. The time has gone by when every citizen in East Liverpool knew everybody and whether a man was entitled to vote or not. We must have registration to keep those from voting who have no right to do so.

Rev. Dr. Clark Crawford: I shall work for registration, recognizing it as one of the great needs of the city. I shall call attention to the subject in my sermons tomorrow and ask other ministers to do likewise. It is the duty of every friend of honest elections to vote and work for the system. No city in Ohio needs it more.

Mayor W. C. Davidson: I cannot see wherein the city or citizens would derive any benefit from registration.

Chief T. V. Thompson: I have not given the matter sufficient study to express an opinion.

S. T. Herbert: In my opinion registration would be a detriment to the Republican party. It would tend to decrease the local vote and thus give the northern portion of the county an advantage which, in my estimation, would be unfair. The expense of registration would also be an unnecessary burden on taxpayers.

G. Y. Travis: I have not as yet heard any logical argument in favor of registration. It is only intended to stop illegal voting, and I am not aware of any crookedness of this kind having been permitted here.

Justice H. P. McCarron: I have given the matter little thought, but I do not believe the city is in need of registration. The chances are that the northern end of the county would profit in no great measure if registration is adopted here.

Justice J. N. Rose—I am not in favor of registration. I can see no necessity for it.

Christian Metsch: I will favor any proposition calculated to purify the ballot.

Sol Faulk: I am opposed to increasing the taxes for the purpose of securing registration.

David McLane: Have given the matter little thought, but I believe registration would be a good thing.

M. E. Miskall: Registration is all right. We should have it.

Attorney W. K. Gaston: I am unable to see where there is any need of registration.

Attorney M. J. McGarry: I do not know who is asking for registration, nor what it is wanted for.

NOT PISTOL SHOTS

Torpedoes on the Railroad Caused Excitement on Lower Second Street.

The residents of lower Second street were awakened at a late hour last night by three loud reports which were thought to have been made by the discharge of a pistol. An investigation was made by several men, but nothing could be learned to explain the mystery of the supposed shooting affray.

The matter was reported to the police this morning, who began an investigation. It was learned that a brakeman on a west-bound freight train had placed torpedoes on the track near the foot of Second street to give a signal to the engineer of a train following.

THREE MORE WIVES ASK FOR DIVORCE

Drunkenness and Cruelty Charged Against East Liverpool Husbands.

RESTRAINING ORDER ASKED

By Annie L. Snate Against Husband Withdrawing $500 on Deposit—Woe Soon Followed Bliss in Maude Price's Case.

Lisbon, April 15.—(Special)—Annie L. Snate seeks a divorce from George H. Snate and wants an order restraining him from drawing out $500 which he has deposited in the Potters Building and Savings company in East Liverpool. She accuses him of failure to support, of cruelty and of habitual drunkenness for three years. She says also that he owes her $208.55, which is deposited in his name. She asks alimony also. Brookes & Thompson are her attorneys.

The married life of Maud and Thomas Price has been a severe disappointment to the wife. They were married in April, 1900, at Lisbon. They have one child. Since July, 1900, when the husband abused and beat her into unconsciousness, she has not lived with him. The petition is filed by Brookes and Thompson, of East Liverpool.

Attorney W. F. Lones, of Wellsville, has filed a petition in which Julia B. Nagle asks a divorce from Frederick Nagle. They were married in Pittsburg in July, 1894. Two children were born. The wife charges continued neglect, and says she has been compelled to support herself. She says that for three years he has been a habitual drunkard.

AGREEMENT PROBABLE

As a Result of the Conference Between Stone Masons And Contractors.

Another conference is being held between the stone masons and their employers this afternoon, and it is stated that an agreement will undoubtedly be reached today.

One Plain Drunk.

Patrick Cannon was the only individual who fell into the hands of the police last night. He was found on West Market street by Officer Stafford and placed in jail on a charge of intoxication. This morning he was fined $5.60, gave an order on his employer and secured his release.

SIZE OF MAJORITY THE ONLY QUESTION

Republican Ticket Sure of a Triumphant Election On Monday.

ONE SOLITARY DEMOCRAT

Who Is Making a Canvass for Support. Prohibitionists Active, But Not Numerous Enough to Count—The Ante-Election Outlook.

Monday is election day, and from present indications it will be a very quiet affair. The entire Republican ticket will be elected by a big majority in spite of the spasmodic efforts and grand stand plays on the part of both Democrats and Prohibitionists.

The ticket of the Democracy will not be a factor, since the leaders utterly failed in their efforts to form a citizens' ticket, and have not even been able to induce a sufficient number of men of their own political party to make the sacrifice and fill out the ticket. A number of blank spaces will appear on this ticket.

So far as can be learned there will be but one Democratic nominee for any office who will make an effort to get a respectable vote. Robert Buchanan, candidate for township clerk, is a well known young man and were he connected with the proper and popular party could not fail to make a good showing. As it is he will get a complimentary vote.

The Prohibitionists and their recently acquired newspaper have been making an unusually strong bid for patronage, but it will not pan out. The party has exhausted its campaign fund in the purchase and posting of cards containing the names of its candidates. The leaders of the party are putting forth every effort to land their candidate for mayor and members of council. They are even accused of confusing the name of Justice Daniel McLane with that of the Prohibition candidate for mayor in the hope that it may win a few votes. In most cases, however, the aspirants are working in a half-hearted manner, realizing the gigantic proposition confronting them in the shape of the Republican majority. One of the candidates for council, when asked how he expected to win, said:

"I really don't know. To be frank with you I am not making the canvass with any idea that I can win, but I have been mentioned in connection with the so-called citizens' ticket and also the Democratic organization. All this has been without my knowledge or consent, so I concluded to make the canvass in order to show the people that I am not a party to the alleged reform movement only in so far as it involves the Prohibition party."

ELOPERS ARRESTED WHILE IN WELLSVILLE

Lisbon, April 5. — (Special) — Mrs. Estella Hawkins came to the probate office yesterday to prevent the marriage of her daughter, Leora, aged 16, to William Neville. Mrs. Hawkins resides about three miles northeast of Lisbon and her daughter was living at the home of Farmer Caldwell, east of here.

Neville works on Jefferson Dickey's farm, near Caldwell's. The mother only knew that the couple had left Elkrun township Friday morning. As there was no information regarding their whereabouts, no warrant could well be issued. Mrs. Hawkins went home, having accomplished nothing.

She returned at daylight this morning. At Judge Boone's residence she got a writ of habeas corpus. It was found that the pair had gone to New Cumberland, W. Va., and been married, returning to Wellsville. Later they were arrested in that city, but released when they showed their marriage certificate. They said they had rented a house in Elkrun township and would go to housekeeping. Attorneys whom Mrs. Hawkins consulted advised her to call the eloping pair home and forgive them.

CLAY WORKERS HAVE CEASED WORK AT THE LAUGHLIN NO. 2

The Men Idle, Alleging That Faulty Clay Is the Cause.

CONFERENCE THIS MORNING

Between Committee Representing the Workmen and the Company.

NO DECISION YET REACHED

Joint Session of Jiggermen And Pressers Held This Afternoon to Discuss the Trouble—Pleasing Program Arranged for Printers'.

Owing to the alleged bad condition of the clay at Laughlin No. 2 the clay hands have not been working at the plant since Friday morning. As a result not less than 135 employes are idle and by Monday the biscuit kilnmen will not be able to work. All these kilns will be filled this evening, seven in number, and the green ware room will be about empty. The glost kilnmen will be able to work for a week at least, as there is plenty of ware ahead.

It is said that since the holidays the clay at this shop has not been up to the mark, and the clay workers could not make the class of ware they desired. Yesterday morning the jiggermen and pressers at this plant quit, claiming the clay was "short," and all took a day. Thinking that a new supply of clay could be had by this morning the clay workers again reported at the shop, but there was no apparent change in conditions. A committee, composed of three pressers and three jiggermen, were selected, and a conference was held with Manager Harker. The men aver that this conference was unsatisfactory and all the clay workers left the shop. When representatives of the press called upon the men this morning they were reluctant to say anything about the trouble. Manager Harker was called upon and when asked for his side of the dispute, he said:

"There are always two sides to a story, and the papers, it seems, always give the side of the men."

"I would like to have an expression from you, Mr. Harker," said the News Review reporter, "in order that the facts of the case could be given just as they are."

"The men, it seems, just wanted a day," said Mr. Harker. "When one man wants a day it 'catches,' and the rest of them join in."

"Is it true that there was some trouble with the clay?" was asked.

"It happens in every pottery that sometimes a bad supply of clay is found, and this is no exception. Further, we do not make a practice of talking for publication."

When Mr. Harker was asked if a committee from the shop had called upon him this morning he had nothing to say and walked into the slip house.

There are 24 jiggers at this plant, which are off, throwing 84 persons idle. The 32 pressers are also off and five dishmakers. Six turners and three handlers are also off, making a total of 135 persons in the shop who are not working.

It was announced this morning that a joint meeting of the pressers and jiggermen would be held this afternoon in the Knights of Columbus hall, and not until after this session would the matter be presented to the National officers in an official form.

At a meeting of the social committee of printers' and transferers' union No. 32 held last evening, the final arrangements for the opening of the new meeting place in the Rechabite hall, were completed. There is to be a social on the opening night, which undoubtedly will be a great success. Being composed of a number of ladies, it has been with much difficulty that the members have attended the meetings on account of the former meeting place being somewhat out of the way. Now that the new hall is to be opened the attendance of the ladies is expected to be very large. An attempt is to be made to increase the membership of the local. It is announced that not much work in this respect has been done in the past, but now a new lease of life is to be taken on. Every

Bank Examiner Has a Bad Opinion of Belmont Bank Books.

In an interview Bank Inspector Delay told the Wheeling Intelligencer that every day brought out a worse condition of the closed First National bank of Belmont. He also stated that of all the books he ever looked over the Belmont bank books were the rottenest in his experience. He gave a few samples of Cashier Kinney's banking methods. One victim borrowed $280 from the bank to invest in horses. In a short time he deposited $280 and was told the account was balanced. Trusting all was straight he failed to get a receipt and a few days ago was notified that his note was due and he was forced to pay it for the second time.

The treasurer of the Citizens bank had to pay an account of $60 for the second time. Another man deposited $1,000 apiece for each of his three children. It seems no record was was made of this, consequently they are short that much. These incidents are examples of many others. Almost every day certificates of deposit are presented that are marked paid on the bank books. As another result of the trouble S. C. Murphy has sold his property and will bid farewell to Belmont.

LECTURED ON M'KINLEY

Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, Spoke Eloquently of the Late President.

The Sixth number on the high school lecture course was given last night to a large audience at the opera house. Senator J. P. Dolliver, of Iowa, was booked to speak upon "The Working Man of Nazareth," but evidently not to his knowledge, for according to his own statement he was not a theologian and had not spoken upon that subject for several years. He introduced himself as a plain every-day country politician, and said the only difference between politicians and statemen is that a politician becomes a statesmen after he is dead.

With the audience's permission Senator Dolliver said he would speak upon "The Life of Our Late Martyred President."

FROM SOUTH AFRICA

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman, writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy teat the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Alvin H. Bulger.

EAST END

RAILS TO STATE LINE

Will Be Laid on Smith's Ferry Extension Today—Good Progress Made.

Work on the Smith's Ferry extension of the East Liverpool street railway extension is progressing rapidly and it was announced by Supt. Thomas Reed this morning that the work of laying the rails to the state line would likely be completed by this evening. The road would then be ballasted as soon as possible and the operation of the cars would be extended rapidly.

There is work yet to be done before the company can enter Smith's Ferry, as it may be that the company will have to build a bridge over Beaver creek before it can run cars to that town. It may be that an arrangement can be made with the commissioners of Beaver county for the right to cross the bridge at that point, but this is something that will have to be looked after later.

VISITED PENITENTIARY

Grant McDade Saw Ira Marlatt—He Thinks Him Not So Black as Painted.

Grant McDade has returned to the East End From Columbus, where he has been attending the medical school at the Ohio State university. He will remain at home until September, when he will return to school. Mr. McDade stated that before leaving Columbus he visited the penitentiary, where he had a long talk with Ira Marlatt and Jesse McGregor. The latter is employed in the stove department, while Marlatt is doing odd work about the walled city.

"Marlatt is not as bad as he is painted," said McDade. There is an impediment in his speech, but otherwise one would not suppose there was anything the matter with him. I also inquired about Zach Robinson, but was unable to see him."

EAST END AFFAIRS.

William Weyrick, whose family is in Indiana, was in the East End yesterday afternoon, looking for a business location. Mr. Weyrick is now stopping at Beaver and expects to move to the East End soon.

At a meeting of the session of the Second U. P. church last evening, W. H. Kinney was elected a delegates to a meeting of presbytery which will be held at Steubenville Monday evening and J. B. Elliott, alternate.

ADMITS A MURDER

Drunken Man Makes a Sensational Statement That May Cost His Life.

Steubenville, April 5.—Sensational information has come to light concerning the mystery surrounding the death of James Gosnell on Perrin's Run several years ago, when some unknown assassin fired a load of buckshot through his body while Gosnell was seated reading by lamp light in his own kitchen with his family in an adjoining room. The assassin fired from the garden near the kitchen window.

Dr. G. W. Smith, of Mt. Pleasant has for years been trying to locate Gosnell's murderer. It is now believed his efforts are about to be rewarded, for the reason he accidentally overheard a drunken man, whose name has not yet been divulged, remark: "I shot Jim Gosnell, and I was paid $25 to do it."

Dr. Smith has learned that the man who made the sensational statement repeated it to three other men. His arrest is expected to follow soon.

A SOLDIER'S VIEWS OF THE FILIPINOS

Humorous Observations About the Natives by One Who Don't Like Them.

WILLIAM MANLEY'S IDEAS

After Service In the United States Infantry—The Islands and Their People Described In Terms Not Altogether Complimentary.

After a close and careful study of the country in which he was then serving as a soldier with Company H, Fourteenth United States infantry, William Manley, of this city, wrote at Manila, P. I., the following brief history of his observations:

The Philippine islands are bunches of trouble, gathered together on the western horizon of civilization. They are bounded on the north by rocks, itch and destruction; on the east by typhoons, monsoons and leprosy; on the south by cannibals, gugus, earthquakes and bubonic plague, and on the west by hoodoism, ladrones and beriberi.

The climate is a combination of electrical changes, adapted especially to "raising cain." The soil is extraordinary fertile, producing bounteous crops of insurrection, pickaninnies and trickery. The Filipinos, having been so long under Spanish rule, are very industrious, their chief occupations being trench-building, the manufacture of bamboo cannons, bolos, knives, bows and arrows and reloading Remington cartridges. The standard ammunition for their cannon is composed of iron washers, nails, boiler plate, punches, etc.

Principally among the Filipinos' amusements are cock fighting, monte dealing, cariboo and pony racing, theft and cheating. Their diet consists of grasshoppers, boa constrictors, eels, shrimp, lizards and rice in all styles.

The marriage ceremony is indeed impressive, especially as regards the clause wherein the wife is given the privilege of working as much as the husband desires. The beast of burden is the cariboo, or water buffalo. On a three mile "hike" only ten days' rations are required, but before the driver could cover 100 miles he would die of old age, the animals being slower than molasses in February.

All rivers and canals are sepentine in course, their currents running in opposition to all laws of gravitation. Manila, the capital and principal city, is situated on Manila bay, a large landblocked body of water filled with fish, snakes and Spanish sub-marine mines. Cavite, the next city of importance, is noted for its natural facilities for a naval station and for its many saloons and Chinese. The principal exports are rice, hemp, war bulletins and dead soldiers.

Malaria is so prevalent that on various occasions the islands have been shaken with chills. Luzon, the largest of the group, has submitted the mosquito for the carrier pigeon for the reason the mosquito is much larger and capable of enduring the fatigue of travel.

The native costume is a flour sack tied about the waist. Children under 15 years of age have to wait until the next year for their regalia. Here it is is far more preferable to be the undertaker than the ice man.

Most of the towns are aggregations of shacks filled with filth, flies, cats, cur dogs, ponies, pigs, chickens, goats, monkeys, parrots, bedbugs and all kinds of lizards. The occupants of the rudely built houses all sleep on terms of equality with their nightly "visitors."

Native drinks are beno, concentratted terantula juice, cactus juice,, tinto-dulce, swipes and "tuba"—the latter being termed "barbed wire and lightning" by the soldiers. Luzon champagne was Aguinaldo's favorite drink.

The Philippines in their present condition would make an appropriate present for a deadly enemy. The natives are friends at the point of a rifle. The climate is generally healthful for roaches, mosquitoes, tarantulas, alligators, scorpions and snakes. The women—!!! The soil is most adaptable to the raising of foul odors and disease. The country is infested from one end to the other with worthless and ignorant followers of Aguinaldo. Very few of the United States soldiers are desirous of settling in the Philippines.

Following is the bill of fare served to the soldiers on New Year's day, 1901:

Relishes—Olives, radishes, chutney, celery, which, owing to the rainy season, was not to be had.

Soups—Mock turtle, Julienne cream and tomato. This course was left out because of a wrong reckoning in the commissary department.

Fish—Crocodiles, a la Filipino, lizard legs on toast, mosquito tongue and unegelle.

Meats—Roast pheasant and marsellaise, more commonly known as United States canned sausage; French fried beef, with buttons, known in civilized countries as bacon.

Vegetables—Potatoes mashed, stewed, fried, boiled—any ol dway.

Desserts—Chocolate cake, like mother used to make; sauce a la monona, schweitzer, limberger and smear cheese; pineapples, bananas and nuts on the trees.

Drinks—Water, aqua pura, Rhine wine, St. Julienne and Mumm's extra dry champagne and tinto dulce.

SUFFERED THREE YEARS. CATARRH OF STOMACH.

Miss Evelyn Morse writes from 651 Adams Street, Minneapolis, Minn., as follows:

"I suffered for nearly three years with catarrh of the stomach which no medicine seemed to relieve, until a friend advised me to try Peruna. Although skeptical, I tried it, and found it helped me within the first week. I kept taking it for three months, and am pleased to say that it cured me entirely, and I have had no symptoms of its return. I am only too glad to recommend it."--- EVELYN MORSE.

Adia Brittain, of Sekitan, O., writes: "After using your wonderful Peruna three months, I have had great relief. I had continual heaviness in my stomach, was bilious, and had fainting spells, but they all have left me since using Peruna. I can now get around and do my housework, and think Peruna the greatest medicine I ever used."—Adia Brittain.

Mrs. Lizzie Blevins, 102 Boliver street, Cleveland, Ohio, writes: "I candidly feel Peruna was the means of saving my life, for I suffered for months from catarrh of the stomach. Two bottles of Peruna cured me."—Mrs. Lizzie Blevins.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

East Liverpool has a chance to get what large numbers of her citizens have for years considered a desideratum, and that is the full benefit of the registration laws. Those who believe that the system promotes purity of elections and should be given a trial should not be scared from voting their convictions by the cry that registration would be expensive. All the necessary expense for maintaining the system could be met at a cost of a very few cents annually for every voter in this city. Is there any good citizen who cannot afford this expenditure for a worthy cause? There can be no harm to any party or individual in giving the place a trial. If East Liverpool does not find that registration is a good and advantageous system and worthy to be maintained, her experience will certainly be contrary to that of other and larger cities.

The good citizen does not overlook the importance of the spring election. It is quite as important that good men be chosen for local offices as for state and national offices. The wrong man in an East Liverpool office can do infinitely more harm to his city than he could if he were elected to a state office. Home rule is the principle in the conduct of the American municipalities and the people get good or bad local government, according to the sort of men they put in office. The Republican ticket in this city is composed of men who can be trusted. Vote it straight and get your neighbor to vote, too.

Congressman Shafroth, of California, has proposed a new design for the American flag. He leaves the stripes as they are, but rearranges the stars, grouping the newer stars in to form one big star in the center and surrounding it with the original thirteen. The design is certainly artistic, but the old flag as it has appeared for the last century or so is too familiar and beloved an object to be tampered with. All that it stands for is remembered, and public sentiment will scarcely tolerate any changes.

One day more and then the handful of Democrats will wonder what struck them. Every Republican should turn out and make it plain that he thinks very little of Democracy.

Registration helps to prevent election contests and dissatisfaction and removes one of the strongest grounds for the oft-raised cry of "fraud." Can East Liverpool afford to go on record against it?

Your vote will be needed to swell the Republican majority. Turn out and make the opposition, already feeble and discouraged, take to the woods.

The young man or the old who does not take enough interest in local affairs to vote is recreant to the duties and responsibilities of citizenship.

The Republican who stays at home assists the opposition. Don't do it. Don't give the Democrats any chance to figure up "gains."

Vote the entire Republican ticket on Monday. It is the best one, as well as the only one that stands any chance of being elected.

The school board appeals for funds to provide additional school accommodations. It should not appeal in vain.

Spring is coming again.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Sarah J. Moore.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Moore died at her home on Fifth street at 3:45 o'clock this morning, nervous complications being the cause. The lady had been a sufferer from the complaint for the last 10 years.

Mrs. Moore was 72 years of age and came from one of the oldest and most prominent families of Beaver county, Pa. She was a sister of the late Judge Martin, father of Mrs. J. H. Brookes, of this city. One brother and one sister survive, Abner Martin, of the East End, and Mrs. H. J. Abrams, of this city.

On November 1, 1849, Sarah J. Martin was united in marriage to J. W. Moore, and for 40 years they resided in St. Clair township. Eleven years ago they moved to this city, where she has since resided. Two sons and one daughter survive, James L. Moore, of Madison township; Mrs. S. P. Saint, St. Clair township, and John Moore, of this city.

Mrs. Moore was a life long member of the United Presbyterian church, and possessed a character which was well worthy of imitation. Funeral services, in charge of Dr. J. C. Taggart, will be conducted at the late home at 10 o'clock Monday morning; private interment to follow at the Calcutta U. P. cemetery. The remains may be viewed between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock tonight and from 6 to 7 tomorrow evening.

girl who is employed in a decorating department in connection with a printer is entitled to membership in the local and, in order that all may have an opportunity to become members, the initiation fee have been placed at only $1.50. It is said that practically every printer in the city is now affiliated, and most of the work in increasing the membership is to be among the girls.

When the new hall is opened there will be a "spread" of great sumptuosity. There will be lemonade, coffee, sandwiches, ice cream, cake, etc., and then during the evening dancing will hold sway. Every printer is expected to attend and the girls are now preparing for the event. The following is a complete program of the evening:

It may not be long until some extensive improvements will be made to the West End pottery. During the past week an architect has spent considrable time at this plant taking measurements for this contemplated work, but at the office of the company no facts concerning the exact nature of the improvements thought of can be learned. However, it is averred that the kiln capacity will be increased, and if this is done, additions to other parts of the factory will have to be made, and especially to the warehouse. It is said that several thousand dollars may be spent improving this factory.

It was after 11 o'clock before the meeting of Kilnmen's local No. 9 adjourned last evening. Discussions upon resolutions was the cause. During the meeting two new members were obligated and the quarterly report was adopted, showing the local to have a total membership of 470, the largest in the city. Delegates to Trades and Labor Council will be selected at the next session. Arrangements for attending the morning service at the Methodist Protestant church one week from tomorrow were also completed.

Packers' local No. 25 last evening donated about $80 to Roy Wqkoff, a packer who has been ill at his home at Chester for several weeks. Delegates to Trades and Labor Council elected are John Pennington, James Hargraves and Wash Williams. All resolutions which will be presented to the national convention have been passed.

Three additional round, down-draft kilns have just been completed at the Great Western works of the American Sewer Pipe company located at Toronto. With this additional kiln capacity, judging from past records, the Great Western will likely be capable of turning out a larger daily output of pipe than any other other of the company's Ohio river plants.

William P. Green, a presser at the Sebring, went to Steubenville Monday. When he comes back a Steubenville lady will be with him, who will be known as Mrs. Green. They will go to housekeeping at Beloit.—Sebring News.

Work has been commenced at the C. C. Thompson pottery upon the construction of two new decorating kilns. The foundations for these kilns was started yesterday, and it may be the contract will be completed within three weeks.

George Mountford, of Lincoln avenue, a turner at the East Liverpool pottery, has been unable to work for several days on account of suffering with a severe attack of rheumatism. His lathe is being worked by Joe Rigby.

William Wallbanks, a printer employed at the Sebring pottery, is working several days at the Chetwynd plant, helping out. Until a short time ago Mr. Wallbanks has been working at this plant for 10 years.

The New Garden Pottery company of Taughkenaman, Pa., has been incorporated with a capital stock of $75,000 by S. H. Worth, of that city; P. A. Marvel, of Avondale, and Josiah Marvel, of Wilmington, Del.

A new pottery is contemplated at Catlettsburg, Ky. Stockholders of the K. B. Cecil Pottery company of that city and of the Burly & Winter Pottery company of Crooksville, O., are interested.

William Cauley, a packer at Harker's, has been unable to work for several days on account of a felon on his hand. He is now spending several days at his former home at Salineville.

Kilndrawers' local No. 17 will meet this evening in Brotherhood hall. It is likely a report of the committee having in charge the forimng of a benefit feature of this local will make a report.

Elijah Mountford, assistant general manager of Laughlin No. 2, who went to Trenton yesterday afternoon to attend the funeral of his son-in-law, will return to the city Monday morning.

If some of the locals do not complete the work on their resolutions before Thursday, it is likely they will hold special sessions, at which nothing but the resolutions will be discussed.

Miss Margaret Stoffel, a transferer at the Wallace & Chetwynd plant, has been confined to her home on Avondale street for several days with an attack of throat trouble.

Owing to a rush of orders for plain printed ware many of the employes of the decorating department of the Goodwin pottery were not working full time this week.

Orange Jackson, a batter-out for James Mount at the 'Pool, has resigned his position and hereafter will be located at the Edwin M. Knowles plant at Chester.

Dippers' local No. 18 last evening transacted nothing but routine business. At the next session delegates to Trades and Labor Council will be elected.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB

Held an Important Meeting And Elected Officers for the Year.

The Twentieth Century club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. W. Butler, Main street, and all report a profitable as well as a pleasurable time. A short literary program was rendered, after which an hour was spent socially, a delicate refection being one of the features. A short drill on parliamentary rules, conducted by Mrs. W. F. Lones, was also executed. The program consisted of a paper on "Men Who Made America," which was read by Mrs. Lones. The paper was very interesting, all of America's great men, from Washington down to McKinley being pictured in their admirable states. The fisheries of the United States were then intellectually discussed by each member of the club.

Officers were elected for the year as follows: Mrs. E. G. Whitacre, president; Mrs. H. C. Wells, first vice president; Mrs. J. C. Catlett, second vice president; Mrs. A. P. Dennis, secretary, and Miss Mary S. Cope, treasurer.

Mrs. L. F. Laverty, Mrs. A. R. Wells and Miss Mary Smith were appointed as a committee to arrange the yearly program. Literature of the United States and of Ohio will be the subjects placed upon the program. The next and last meeting will be held with Mrs. Everson Friday afternoon, April 11.

MISTLETOE CROWD

Given an Enjoyable Party at the Home of Miss Beulah Wells.

One of the pleasing social events of the season was the party given to the members of the "Mistletoe Crowd" by Miss Beulah Wells at her beautiful home, Main street, last evening. The evening was spent most enjoyably in the playing of the latest social games, which were interspersed by vocal and instrumental music rendered by members of the "Crowd." A luncheon served by the hostess was also a delightful feature of the evening's enjoyment.

Those present were: Misses Nellie Davis, Mary Yost, Beulah Williamson, Lena Lowary, Gertrude Lythe, Bessie Brannon, Ethel Clark and Kate Donaldson; Messrs. Corydon Arnold, Wayne Wells, Thomas Sheets, George Imbrie, Albert Goetz, Guy Hammond and Walter Moore.

BRICK ON HIS HEAD

A Pile Fell on a Workman in a Trench. Narrow Escape.

Carl Freeman, employed by Irwin Bros., sewer contractors, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday while working in a trench below the United States pottery. He was laying bricks at the bottom of the trench when a large pile of brick, which had been laid too close to the trench by a gang of Italians, fell onto him, one striking him on the top of the head, cutting a gash four inches in length.

He was bruised otherwise, but his physician states that he was not seriously hurt and will recover in a few days.

NO GENERAL STRIKE

Yet at the C. & P. Shops, But Men Are Firm for Ten Hours.

The strike situation at the C. & P. shops remains unchanged. The boiler makers are standing by their agreement—to work but 10 hours per day. The employes in the other departments have not made a strike as yet, but it is understood that they will when the master mechanic returns from a visit to Philadelphia.

Several petitions are ready for his decision, and if he does not grant the 10-hour day they say a strike among the entire force will certainly ensue.

The probationers' class of the First M. E. church met Friday evening. There were about 90 persons present. Doctor Crawford took as his subject "The prayer of Christ for His Disciples." MEN ARE STILL SCARCE

Skilled And Unskilled Workers in Demand at the Chester Mill.

MINER'S WEALTH CLEAN

NO BLOOD NOR TEARS ON IT AND NOBODY WRONGED.

A Minister's View on Fortunes That Are Dug From the Ground.

I admire a miner's wealth. It is clean. There is neither blood nor tears in it. Nobody has been pinched; nobody has been wronged. The miner who digs a fortune out of the ground has the satisfaction of knowing that he hasn't robbed a soul, though he becomes a thousand times a millionaire. Then, too, there is another factor to take into consideration. The man who makes a fortune on the board of trade or the stock exchange, or in building up a gigantic business house, adds nothing to the world's store of available wealth. The world, in other words, is no richer because he is richer. He is richer rather because some one else is poorer. The miner, on the other hand, whether he digs out $10 or $100,000, adds that much to the world's wealth, and with the added wealth he contributes just that much to the world's comforts and pleasures.

As I look at the matter there are few producers of wealth. The many live on the few. The only man comparable with the miner is the farmer. He gets what he has direct from nature, but he produces perishable wealth. While he meets a want his contribution is the world's wealth, therefore, is not a permanent one, like the miner's. The gold miner today is the king of the wealth producers of the country, and I honor him above all others. It is no dishonor; it needs no apology to emulate his example or assist him in his efforts. There is the whole question in a nut-shell.—Rev. Robert McEntyre.

OPERATIONS ON A LARGE SCALE

Stock Market Movements Mysterious as to Motive and Identity of Speculators.

New York, April 5.—Friday's stock market gave unmistakable evidence of a substantial recruiting of the speculative element. The movement was a good deal of a mystery, both as to its motive and as to the identity of the operators. Stock market gossip attributed it to the same group of western capitalists to which many recent movements have been attributed and which has been supposed to be concerned in the present large speculative operations in the grain markets. The day's operations were on a far larger scale than anything in the recent history of the stock market. The dealings in St. Paul and Union Pacific were vividly reminiscent of the days of the boom of last year. If the dealings in these stocks are added to those in Louisville and Nashville and in Southern Pacific it will be found that considerably more than one-third of the day's aggregate transactions are accounted for. It was not until late in the day, in fact, that much impression was made upon other portions of the list. Such stocks as the New York public utilities, New York Central and Pennsylvania were then brought forward with spasmodic advances. In the final hour selling to take profits made heavy inroads upon prices and reduced all of the principal gains to fractional limits. The market closed dull and steady. There was very active realizing among many of the specialties recently advanced, conspicuously Sugar and Colorado Fuel. Neither were there lacking the wide advances in obscure specialties which have recently characterized the market. There was no change in the situation of the money market except as indicated by a loss of cash by the banks during the week of over $3,000,000 to the sub-treasury, which is offset by a gain on the interior movement of less than a million dollars.

There was an active demand for bonds, for which there was a good open market all day. Total sales, par value, $5,280,000.

YOUNG FIEND'S WEIRD TALE.

Fifteen-Year-Old Boy Says He Cut Throat of Old Man at Latter's Solicitation.

Salt Lake, Utah, April 5.—Clyde Felt, the 15-year-old boy who stated to the police that he had concealed the body of Sam Collins, the aged watchman of the Wasahtaka mines at Warm Springs, after the latter had committed suicide, yesterday broke down and confessed that he had cut the old man's throat in the little cave above Warm Springs, stripped the body of clothing, and after walling up the entrance with stones had buried the bloodstained clothes. Young Felt said that he had cut Collins' throat only after long urging by the old man, who insisted that he wanted to die and was afraid to commit the deed himself.

From statements made by other boys in the neighborhood of the tragedy, however, the police believe that half of young Felt's story has not been told, and that behind the tragedy is a conspiracy among a number of young boys in the old man's power which finally culminated in Collins' death. A number of other arrests probably will follow.

Motor-Drawn Canal Boats.

Hamilton, O., April 5.—The first trip of canal boats on the Miami and Erie canal drawn by an electric motor was made yesterday. Six boats in line, laden with material for building the line to Cincinnati, were drawn easily to Port Union, a distance of five miles. Material will be transported in this way daily as the track laying is extended toward Cincinnati. The line is expected to be open for traffic from here to Cincinnati early in June.

Provided American Scholarships.

London, April 5.—The will of Cecil Rhodes provided for the settlement of colonial scholarships and two American scholarships to each of the present states and territories of the United States. The scholarships are at Oxford. Mr. Rhodes explicitly says he is to be buried in an aperture cut in the solid rock, surmounted by a brass tablet bearing the words: "Here lie the remains of Cecil John Rhodes." No one else is to be buried there who has not deserved well of his country.

BUY BEFORE THE PRICE GOES HIGHER!

OF THE NUMEROUS speculative investments open to the public the new issue of stock by The Gas Apparatus Construction Company is one of the most promising, and applications for this stock have been so numerous that the value of the stock has increased rapidly, and only after which the price will go higher and higher until the stocks bought today at this low figure may be worth at least $1,000 each. The reason for this marvelous enhancement is simple enough. It doesn't require argument to prove the value of a process by which a good fuel gas can be manufactured for less than five cents per thousand cubic feet.

This is Not an Experiment, the Process Has Already Been Thoroughly Demonstrated.

The Company's plant at Chester is now ready for operation, and the material to be used in the manufacture of the Gas has been ordered and will be shipped immediately.

Forty Conflicting Dates Between the National and American Teams During Season.

BASEBALL SCHEDULE COMPLETE

Each Club Will Play Ten Games With the Others on Home Grounds. Lajoie Rejects Offer of Handsome Salary.

New York, April 5.—The schedule committee of the National League of Baseball Clubs, at the Fifth Avenue hotel late yesterday afternoon, made public the result of their deliberations. The season opens on April 17 and closes on Oct. 4. The schedule consists of 140 games, each club playing 10 games with the other clubs on the home grounds. The eastern clubs will visit the west first.

There are 40 conflicting dates between the National and American teams during the season. Of this number Boston has 16, Philadelphia 10, Chicago 7 and St. Louis 7.

The only big holiday clash will be in Chicago on July 4, when the Boston and Chicago National league teams meet there, as do the Cleveland and Chicago American league clubs.

Philadelphia will open the season in New York on April 17, and the New York club will go to Philadelphia to open its season the following day. Boston opens the season on the 17th at Brooklyn. This means a clash of opening dates in Greater New York. Chicago opens the season in Cincinnati, while Pittsburg opens with St. Louis at the latter place. On April 19, a holiday in Boston, Brooklyn will open the season there Two games will be played.

St. Louis will open the season for Chicago on April 21, and the Cincinnatis will open the season for Pittsburg and participate in the flag raising.

Decoration day will find Philadelphia in New York, Boston in Brooklyn, Chicago in Pittsburg and Cincinnati in St. Louis. On Labor day, Sept. 1, St. Louis will be in New York, Cincinnati in Boston, Pittsburg in Brooklyn and Chicago in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, April 5.—Lajoie, the celebrated second baseman of the Philadelphia American league club, yesterday refused a salary of $7,000 a year for three years made him by an agent of the New York National league club.

FURTHER FIRE PROTECTION.

Atlantic City Council Orders More Engines and Additional Hose.

Atlantic City, N. J., April 5.—At a special meeting of city council yesterday afternoon three new fire engines and 4,000 feet of additional hose were ordered. Council also directed the city solicitor to draft a resolution for a special election to adopt the new city charter, which empowers the municipality to restrict buildings along the beach front to be only of brick and stone. There is talk of running a salt water fire main along the beach.

Will Transfer Rosecrans' Remains.

Washington, April 5.—The Society of the Army of the Cumberland will transfer the remains of General Rosecrans from Los Angeles, Cal., to Arlington, on or about May 17. President Roosevelt and prominent officers of the army will attend. Both houses of congress will be represented. The speaker of the house and General Grosvenor, both of whom served under General Rosecrans, and Senator Foraker, who also served under him will make brief addresses.

Early Close for Flints.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 5.—The flint glass bottle factories of the country will close for the season about May 15. This is a month and a half earlier than usual. A manufacturer of Marion says there has been an overproduction and prices have been low largely on that account. It is the understanding now among the "flints" that the factories shall be closed from the middle of May until October.

Sargent Accepts the Office.

Washington, April 5.—Frank Sargent, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, saw the president yesterday and was tendered the position of commissioner general of immigration. Mr. Sargent accepted, but will close up his business affairs before taking charge. It is understood the resignations of Messrs. Powderly and McSweeney have been requested, or will be at once.

"Ben Bolt's" Author Buried.

Newark, N. J., April 5.—The funeral of Dr. Thomas Dunn English, author of "Ben Bolt," took place yesterday from the House of Prayer. The interment was in the English family plot in Fairmount cemetery.

BRETHREN OF AMEN CORNER.

Feast and Frolic In Which Distinguished Men Paid Homage to Senator Platt.

New York, April 5.—"All sorts and conditions of men of all shades of political sentiment, but with mighty few prohibitionists," was the characterization by Chairman Edward G. Riggs of the great gathering of statesmen, politicians, jurists, journalists, divines and financiers who met Senator Thomas C. Platt last night at the dinner given in his honor by the "Brethren of the Amen Corner" at the Fifth Avenue hotel.

The great dining room of the hotel was filled with about 400 guests of the "Amen Corner Brotherhood," an association consisting of the Albany correspondents and the principal political writers on the newspapers of New York.

At the guests' table were Hon. Timothy L. Woodruff, Hon. Joseph H. Manley, August Belmont, Hon. Elihu Root, Archbishop Ireland, Hon. Chauncey M. Depew, Hon. Arthur P. Gorman, Mayor Seth Low and ex-Governor Frank S. Black.

Roars of merriment greeted the parading through the room of an enormous picture representing Senator Platt as a Sunday school teacher addressing a class composed of President Roosevelt, Governor Odell, Lieutenant Governor Woodruff and Senator Depew. As the picture was borne round the room the assemblage sang "The Sunday School." Senator Platt was greeted with roars of applause and the singing of the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" by the whole assemblage.

After Assistant District Attorney Paul Krotel had rendered "The Lost Job," a travesty on "The Lost Chord," the orchestra hailed Senator Depew, who was introduced by Mr. Riggs as "The Bridegroom," with the "Lohengrin Wedding March." Senator Depew made the principal address, which was mainly eulogistic of Senator Platt.

Massacre Order Produced.

Washington, April 5.—A little over a year ago the senate called on the secretary of war for information tending to show the genuineness of the alleged order for the massacre of the foreign residents of Manila on the evening and night of Feb. 15, 1899. The secretary of war has just made response, transmitting a photographic reproduction of the alleged massacre order, bearing date of Feb. 7, 1899, issued by the late General Luna. Confirmatory evidence is a statement by Aguinaldo affirming the genuineness of Luna's signature. On Feb. 23, 1899, a daring attack was made by the insurrectos on the American forces in Manila.

Family's Run of Ill-Luck.

Greensburg, Pa., April 5.—Two little boys of John Torris, of Jamison, threw a match into a keg half filled with powder yesterday. A terrific explosion followed, frightfully wounding the children. While they lay in the hospital word was received that the father had been probably fatally crushed by a slate fall in the mines at Jamison. Fifteen minutes later the elder of the boys died. The father is dying, and the other boy is in a critical condition.

Lane Sentenced to Death.

Philadelphia, April 5.—William H. Lane, the colored servant, who on Tuesday last murdered Ella J. Jarden and her daughter Madeline, and so badly wounded another daughter, Eloise, that she died yesterday, was convicted of murder in the first degree yesterday afternoon, after a trial lasting less than one and a half hours. Judge Biddle sentenced the murderer to death.

Memphis Will Honor Schley.

Washington, April 5.—Admiral W. S. Schley yesterday promised a committee of citizens of Memphis that he would visit the Tennessee city on the 27th inst. and remain several days. The committee presented the admiral an invitation engraved on a magnificent silver shield affixed to a tablet of polished golden oak. The admiral will be presented with a magnificent service of silver plate at Memphis.

West Virginia City Growing.

Charleston, W. Va., April 5.—A census compiled by letter carriers under the direction of the postoffice department shows an actual carrier service in the city of 13,259 persons. To this is to be added about 1,000 who receive mail at the general delivery. The census of 1900 gave Charleston a population of 11,099.

After Rich Cleveland Property.

Flint, Mich., April 5.—James C. Decker and Mrs. George L. Crawford, of this city, are preparing to contest for part of the estate of Absalom Case, one of the pioneers of Cleveland, O., who obtained 400 acres of land in the heart of Cleveland from the Indians. Its present value is said to be $80,000,000.

Killed All Three Occupants.

Freeport, Ills., April 5.—A westbound Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul passenger train yesterday struck a buggy near Kittridge containing three young people, Lily and Lizzie Shipman and Earl Kahl, of Brookville, killing all of them.

STRIKE IS CALLED OFF

Ten Thousand Pennsylvania Miners Likely to Go to Work Monday.

CONCESSIONS ON BOTH SIDES.

Reported Amicable Arrangements Made by Leaders of Warring Interests Bring Joy to Workers In Central Part of State.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 5.—As the result of a conference at the headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America yesterday, between President Mitchell, Bernard Rice, of Deerfield, Pa., president of District No. 2, Pennsylvania, and L. W. Robinson, of Rochester, N. Y., president of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg Coal company, it is believed that the strike of that company, called at Altoona, April 1, and involving 10,000 men, will be declared off. It is understood that both Mr. Rice and Mr. Robinson made concessions which probably will be acceptable to the miners.

Mr. Robinson left for Pittsburg last night to confer with other officials of the coal company, and President Mitchell and Mr. Rice placed themselves in communication with the district leaders at Altoona who are managing the strike. They were notified of the result of the conference, and the advisability of accepting the terms and calling off the strike will be left in their hands.

The conference between Commissioner Thomas S. Davis, representing the association of mine operators of Michigan; W. F. Williams, president of the Michigan mine workers, and President Mitchell, of the national organization of mine workers, was concluded last night without an agreement being reached in the strike now on in that state. Both interests refused to recede from their positions, and after a two days' session it was apparent that the conference was a failure. The strike affects about 1,700 men. The entire Michigan organization was called out April 1.

Dubois, Pa., April 5.—Authentic information was received in this city last night that the strike has been settled, and that Monday morning all mines of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg Coal and Iron company will resume operations. The announcement will bring cheer to 10,000 miners and their families, besides hundreds of railroad and shop men, as well as to every community in the region. Orders were issued last night at the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg railroad offices to rush all empty cars to this end of the line to be in readiness for resumption.

SECOND FIRE IN A YEAR.

Furniture Store of Barker, Williams & Co. at Pittsburg Again Gutted.

Pittsburg, April 5.—Fire in the establishment of Barker, Williams & Co., furniture dealers at 817 Penn avenue, this city, yesterday caused damage to this and adjoining property estimated at over $80,000. Barker, Williams & Co. will lose $60,000 on stock; Orne & Howland, $5,000 on building; Household Credit Co., $15,000; Myer & Loral, druggists; G. H. Dietrich, shirt manufacturer, and Standard Printing company, $5,000 by water.

Practically the same property was damaged on April 24 last year by a fire that originated in the building occupied by Barker, Williams & Co At that time the property loss was close to $200,000, and Fireman Edward Hagmaier was crushed to death by the collapse of the upper floors in the Orne & Howland building. The fire yesterday started about 5 p. m., and was extinguished about 8 p. m. The losses are almost completely covered by insurance.

Two Trainmen Killed In Wreck.

Parnassus, Pa., April 5.—In a freight wreck near Cragdell station, on the Allegheny and Buffalo division of the Pennsylvania railroad, yesterday, Fireman B. H. Gheehan, of Williamsport, Pa., was crushed to death, and Brakeman W. B. Moshier was fatally scalded. Engineer James A. Williams was probably fatally injured. The wreck was caused by the train running into 100 tons of rock that had fallen from the hillside. The train was running at high speed, and the collision was terrific. The engine was thrown into the river, and a dozen cars were piled up.

Parricide Dotson Hanged.

Deer Lodge, Mont., April 5.—Clinton Dotson was hanged yesterday for participation in the murder of his father. Dotson went to the scaffold without fear or trembling. Just before the trap was sprung he confessed to the crime. He slept to within half an hour before he was led out to the scaffold. His neck was broken by the drop.

UNSETTLING FACTORS

Labor Controversies Interrupt Production and Make Manufacturers Conservative

STAPLE LINES FREELY BOUGHT.

Iron and Steel Supplies Still Less Than the Demand—Price Drop Expected After July 1—Failures for the Week.

New York, April 5.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, said in part:

Labor controversies continue to be the only seriously disturbing events in the industrial world, and, while many disagreements have been promptly settled, others have appeared to interrupt production and make manufacturers conservative about new undertakings. Retail distribution of spring wearing apparel received a check from the more inclement weather in many localities, yet merchandise of most staple lines is purchased freely, and collections are satisfactory at nearly all points except the south.

Supplies of iron and steel do not seem in any immediate danger of overtaking demand. In fact, the prospect of labor disturbances on May 1 makes the situation still more uncertain, and those who hoped for equilibrium in the market by July 1 are less sanguine. Midsummer seems to be the dividing line as to quotations, prices after July 1 averaging about $1 per ton less than earlier deliveries, while those few fortunate sellers of spot material continue to secure large premiums. Pittsburg pig iron is definitely higher, and large contracts are still under negotiation between the Bessemer producers and the leading consumers. Coke continues to move a little more freely, yet prices are fully sustained.

It is between seasons for woolen goods and there is the usual quiet, except where buyers are anxiously looking for goods to replace deliveries interrupted by the strike at Olneyville and vicinity.

Widely divergent views as to the crop outlook resulted in a dull market for the cereals and only small changes in prices. Wheat receipts for the week were but 2,074,699 bushels, against 3,357,135 last year, while exports from all ports of the United States amounted to 3,365,070 bushels compared with 4,626,037 a year ago. There was not the customary loss in receipts of corn, 1,580,505 bushels, comparing with 1,602,027 a year ago, but Atlantic exports were only 204,356 bushels, against 3,046,891.

The course of commodity prices during the month of March indicates a seasonable tendency downward. Dun's ndex number, giving the aggregat quotations proportioned to consumption, was $99,222 on April 1, against $101,593 a month previous. This decline of 2.3 per cent was mainly due to the higher temperature which accelerated the output of garden and dairy products.

Failures in the United States this week were 167, against 195 last year, and 22 in Canada, against 29 last year.

CHINESE EXCLUSION BILL.

Both Branches of Congress Begin Consideration of Measure.

Washington, April 5.—The senate yesterday began consideration of the Chinese exclusion bill, Mr. Mitchell, of Oregon, making the opening speech. He pointed out forcefully the necessity for the exclusion of Chinese laborers and carefully and elaborately analyzed the bill. He said that it had been constructed on the basis of existing law, in the light of experience and of the decisions of the courts. While its provisions were drastic, the bill, he said, in some respects was more liberal than the Geary act.

The Indian appropriation bill was under consideration for a time, but was not completed.

The house also began consideration of the exclusion bill. No opponents of the general principle of exclusion appeared, but members were divided in their support of the two bills presented. Messrs. Hitt, of Illinois; Perkins, of New York, and Adams, of Pennsylvania, supported the majority bill and Messrs. Clark, of Missouri; Kahn, of California, and Naphen, of Massachusetts, spoke for the minority substitute.

Boers Were Repulsed.

London, April 5.—There was severe fighting all day long on March 31 in the neighborhood of Harts river, in the southwestern extremity of the Transvaal, between part of General Kitchener's force and the force of Generals Delarey and Kemp, resulting in the repulse of the Boers after heavy losses on both sides. One party of Canadian Rifles, commanded by Lieutenant Bruce Carruthers, held its post until every man was killed or wounded.

One Difference Not Settled.

Ironton, O., April 5.—The conference of mine officials and operators of this district succeeded in settling all disputes except entry driving, which will be considered at an adjourned session, April 10. The strike ordered is withheld till then.

Selling Cigar Stubs Is a Lucrative Business in Naples.

Buying and selling cigar stubs is a large and lucrative business in the city of Naples, and many persons are engaged in it. Some of them have little stalls or shops near the docks, the arsenals and the manufacturing establishments where workingmen are in the habit of passing to and from their tasks. Others, with less capital, have little stands at street corners, a board laid across a saw horse, upon which their stock in trade is displayed, while the petty dealers in this line of business exhibit their stock in little piles upon the sidewalk, sometimes not even a newspaper being under them.

The supply comes from the cafes, restaurants, hotels and other public places. Men and women pick over the garbage heaps and the dust boxes, and boys run up and down the pavements in front of the hotels early every morning looking for "snipes." Some of the restaurant and cafe keepers sell the privilege of picking up the cigar stumps in their places to dealers, and the proceeds amount to a considerable sum during the year. In other places it is one of the perquisites of the head waiter.

Some of the stubs are taken to factories, where they are cut up and manufactured into cigarettes and smoking tobacco, but the greater part of them are sold to the lower classes of workingmen, sailors and dock wallopers, who smoke them in their pipes. At the entrance of the navy yard, which is upon one of the most frequented streets in Naples and in a very conspicuous place, half a dozen of these secondhand cigar dealers can be found when the men are coming out of the gates at the close of their day's work. The employees are not allowed to smoke inside, and their wages do not permit them to indulge in the luxury of cigars or even smoking tobacco at first hand, so, for a centissimo, which is the smallest coin imaginable—one-fifth of 1 cent—they buy a cigar stub, crumble it up in their hands and cram it into their pipes.—Chicago Herald.

GRANT AND OCHILTREE.

The Grievance the President Had Against the Colonel.

"After the war," said a veteran officeholder, "a warm friendship sprang up between General Grant and Colonel Tom Ochiltree, although they had fought on opposite sides. When Grant appointed a large number of people who had been under him to federal offices, he also appointed Ochiltree. Tom had been 'under him' in a sense. Tom was made United States marshal in Texas.

"Well, you know, in those days Tom took a very deep interest in the ponies and was a sort of patron saint of racing in the new southwest. He was so much admired by horsemen generally that it became quite the thing for owners to name their horses after him. At one time there were not less than a dozen horses running at various tracks under the name of Tom Ochiltree.

"Everything went lovely until Tom came up to Washington, several months after assuming his new duties. In the course of his visit he called at the White House for a conference with the president. After talking generalities for awhile Tom noticed that the president seemed to have something on his mind—didn't appear to be as frank and cordial as usual. He finally asked General Grant what the trouble was, hinting that the chief executive might not be satisfied with the manner in which the marshal's office was being conducted.

"'Well, I'll tell you,' said the president, 'I don't like the way you've been running about the country, following the races. I see by the sporting columns of the papers that first you are in Louisville, then you're in New York, next you're in Saratoga and next somewhere out west. I would rather you stayed at home and looked after your office.'"—Washington Post.

The First Skirmish.

Newlywed (after the first cloud has passed)—Kitty, you must not feel unhappy. Why, is my opinion never to count for anything?

Kitty (after thinking it over)—Surely, sometimes, when we have the same opinion, yours will count, and when we differ mine will.—New York Times.

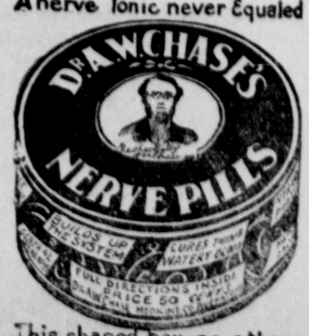

His Speech.

"I wonder what he meant," said the man who had been trying to make a speech.

"What he said, very likely," some one suggested.

"Yes, I know, but he said my flow of words was continuous without continuity."—Chicago Post.

AN UNFAMILIAR TEXT.

But It Was a Forcible Illustration of a Great Truth.

Several years ago there labored in one of the western villages of Minnesota a preacher who was always in the habit of selecting his texts from the Old Testament and particularly some portion of the history of Noah. No matter what the occasion was, he would always find some parallel incident from the history of this great character that would readily serve as a text or illustration.

At one time he was called upon to unite the daughter of the village mayor and a prominent attorney in the holy bonds of matrimony. Two little boys, knowing his determination to give them a portion of the sacred history touching Noah's marriage, hit upon the novel idea of pasting together two leaves in the family Bible so as to connect, without any apparent break, the marriage of Noah and the description of the ark of the covenant.

When the noted guests were all assembled and the contracting parties with attendants in their respective stations, the preacher began the ceremonies by reading the following text: "And when Noah was one hundred and forty years old he took unto himself a wife," then, turning the page, he continued, "300 cubits in length, 50 cubits in width and 30 cubits in depth and within and without besmeared with pitch." The story seemed a little strong, but he could not doubt the Bible, and, after reading it once more and reflecting a moment, he turned to the startled assemblage with these remarks, "My beloved brethren, this is the first time in the history of my life that my attention has been called to this important passage of the Scriptures, but it seems to me that it is one of the most forcible illustrations of that grand eternal truth that the nature of woman is exceedingly difficult to comprehend.—Starlight Messenger.

Value of Time.

The value of odd minutes is illustrated by a story told in a curious little volume of advice printed in England. A large firm required a manager for one of its departments and appointed 12 o'clock for arrangement of terms with the selected applicant. He arrived at five minutes past 12, to find a dozen directors waiting, the chairman watch in hand. The chairman announced that they could not engage a subordinate who had wasted an hour of his employers' time, and on the applicant deprecating such exaggeration the chairman explained that each director had wasted five minutes and that made an hour in all.

Dickens Said She Was a Woman.

It is said of George Eliot's literary style that its most marked characteristic is sympathy. And long before her identity had become known Charles Dickens, a singularly acute critic of his own art, detected her sex by this undercurrent of womanly sympathy. He had been reading "Scenes of Clerical Life," which had been sent to him by the publisher, and on putting the book aside he said, "Well, this writer possesses great ability, but I should say, despite the name, that George Eliot is a woman."

FROM HEADQUARTERS.

Manager Blood Wine Company Replies to Numerous Local Inquiries.

SOME INTERESTING FACTS MADE PUBLIC FOR THE FIRST TIME.

The following letter has been received by us, and will no doubt interest many of you on account of containing the replies from the "Blood Wine" company to the questions asked by several of our citizens.

DISCOVERER OF BLOOD WINE.

TO THE EDITOR:

Dear Sir—We have had a great many letters from people of your city since "Blood Wine" was first introduced, and while we have tried to reply direct to each inquiry, there may be some we have overlooked. If so, we wish to apologize; and when we say that our mail amounts to over a thousand letters a day, we are sure that your readers will pardon us, and accept this letter in lieu of a personal one. Many people ask us if "Blood Wine" will cure consumption. To these we will say that as far as we have been able to learn, excepting in a few cases, where the disease was of old standing and advanced to a state where the lungs were literally decomposed before our treatment was commenced, "Blood Wine" has cured this and the allied diseases, which include coughs, colds, bronchial affection, catarrh of the head and throat, pneumonia and weakness of the lungs. It will heal the lungs and relieves the tender feelings.

Many have inquired about kidney troubles—to all so affected we can truthfully recommend "Blood Wine." Excepting in advanced stages of Bright's Disease it is almost certain to correct the wrong activity and restore normal conditions, and we have known it to bring about really remarkable cures of Bright's Disease.

To the elderly gentleman who states that he has chronic constipation, brought on by close office work and sedentary habits, we would suggest the immediate use of "Blood Wine." Take in moderate doses at first; to assist the medicine, take some form of exercise after arising in the morning, if only for a few minutes. You are sure of being benefited.

To the woman who signs herself only "Mrs. B."—we would say—take "Blood Wine" in the morning before breakfast as directed on the bottle. We are sure you can retain it. If you noted a slight burning in the stomach at first, eat a very light breakfast. You will soon be so you can take a hearty meal and enjoy it, and you will find the color will return to your cheeks in a week or so, and your lameness, soreness and dragged-out feelings will all disappear. Then you will be able to do your housework.

To Mr. R.—We cannot do anything for your rupture. This is an affliction out of the reach of "Blood Wine," and should be submitted to a specialist skilled in such matters.

In conclusion we will advise all who are interested in "Blood Wine" to call at their druggists and they will get more complete and definite information than we can give in this brief letter. You can sample "Blood Wine" there free of charge. Read the literature and get some facts that will appeal to you seriously. We could fill this entire page with letters of endorsements, and words of praise from thousands of sufferers who, by the aid of "Blood Wine" have been lifted out of the clutches of disease and restored to full health and vigor. It is our aim to make friends everywhere. We are careful to make honest statements, and not mislead anyone. "Blood Wine" is not a cure all. It has no supernatural characteristics or the power to make the grave give up its dead. But in several forms of disease all those for which it is recommended, it will bring about thorough, permanent, speedy cures in ninety-nine cases out of every hundred.

Yours truly,
LOUIS DAUDELIN CO.

"Blood Wine" costs fifty cents a bottle, but you can sample it free of charge at Will Reed's and Hodson's drug stores.

ABSOLUTE FAITH

You Can Depend Upon the Word of This East Liverpool Citizen.

He has had the experience.

He has thoroughly tested the article.

He found it as represented.

He has absolute faith in its merits.

Mr. P. J. Green, veterinary surgeon, says: "When attending a sick horse belonging to Mr. G. H. Gardiner, of 168 Jackson street, he remarked to me that the horse seemed to be in pain. I replied that I was the sicker of the two, as I could at that time scarcely straighten up with my back from lameness, weakness and severe pains. He asked me what my symptoms were and I explained to him that I had suffered for a number of years from my kidneys, that I had attacks at times when nothing helped me, and it was agony to get around, but that I could not endure idleness. The secretions from the kidneys were very high colored and acidious; that I had spells of dizziness when I could see black specks floating before my eyes and felt generally broken up. He looked up and said he had the very thing needed to cure me in his house —Doan's Kidney Pills. He went into the house and brought me eight pills. I took them with me and used them two at a dose. The effect was astonishing. I felt it almost at once, and went to the W. & W. pharmacy and bought a box and took them. The encouragement held out to me by the first eight pills was not mythical, as by their continual use the improvement continued, and I consider no expression of praise too strong for Doan's Kidney Pills. In short, they are no plus ultra."

MODERN SAMSONS

College Strong Men Now Undergoing Annual Tests.

OBJECT OF THE COMPETITION.

System Was Devised by Conference of Gymnasium Directors — Last Year's Leaders—Manner of Measuring Muscle Power.

Intercollegiate strong men are very prominent just now. The yearly contests to establish the national amateur champions in this branch of athletics are now taking place, and soon the official reports of institutions from the Atlantic to the Pacific will be compared, and the winners will be made known. Ever since the establishment of these tests, ratified by physical directors of the various universities and colleges in America, college men have been greatly interested in the claims of their alma maters. The first recognized test occurred in 1898, and it brought forth several phenomenal performers. The object of this competition is to bring into close focus the athletic status of the various contesting institutions, and at a meeting the gymnasium directors devised a system whereby the relative strength of the fifty strongest men might be determined.

In order to establish a measure a few simple strength tests were decided on. These tests were to take place simultaneously in the competing institutions. It was not necessary that the contestants should meet in one place, but that their examination should be held in the presence of at least three authorized persons of each institution. The chairman of this body of examiners is Dr. D. A. Sargent of Harvard university, the other members of the deciding committee being Dr. James W. Seaver of Yale university and Dr. Watson L. Savage of Columbia university, New York city.

The strength tests used in making up the total schedule of the competitors are: First, strength of back; second, strength of legs; third, strength of right forearm; fourth, strength of left forearm; fifth, strength of lungs; sixth, upper arms and chest; seventh, biceps and back. These tests are on a uniform system.

In the matter of the strength of back the apparatus used is a spring dynamometer of a capacity of 900 kilos. For the back lift and also for the test of leg strength the apparatus is the same. For the forearm test the instrument used is a spring dynamometer of a capacity of 110 kilos. For the lung test there is used a spring manometer of the steam gauge pattern, with a registering capacity of forty hectograms, or about eight and three-quarter pounds. In the test of the upper arms or biceps the apparatus used is a pair of parallel bars which stand at least five feet from the floor and eighteen inches apart. The strength test for the upper arms and back together is a horizontal bar of about one inch in diameter, suspended eight feet from the floor. Taking hold of the horizontal bar, the contestant draws himself up until his chin is level with the bar.

Each contestant must be a bona fide student of the institution in which he is enrolled and must conform to the description of an amateur as defined by the Intercollegiate association.

Columbia university is the leader in the intercollegiate contest to date, having recorded a total strength score of 65,271.5 points. Harvard occupies second place, having scored 64,090.4. Minnesota is third, having scored 56,160.4. Amherst and Wesleyan follow, with a strength score of 48,742.9 and 45,159.2 respectively.

The strongest man of all the competing colleges last year was R. W. Allis of Minnesota, whose total was 1,940.9 points. Following next in order is C. G. Herbert of Harvard, with a total score of 1,869.5. The third is A. Tyng, also of Harvard, with a total score of 1,709.2. The fourth is Harold H. Weekes of Columbia, with a total score of 1,709 points. These are the four strongest men of the competing colleges.

MADE A GOOD IMPRESSION.

A Case of Well Developed Nerve, Coupled With Wit.

"There is absolute wit in some men's nerve," said a business man to a reporter. "My partner and I, with the intention of expanding our business, about a year ago decided to send a representative through the south. We looked over the field carefully and finally picked out a young man who was possessed of good address and who, we felt sure, would do the work.

"He had been convivial in former days, but his deportment had been such for a year that it made us feel confident he would do the proper thing. He was given $400 for expenses and was started out on the mission. It was the understanding that he was to make a daily report of his efforts.

"Two months passed by, and we never heard from him. We telegraphed repeatedly to different towns that were on his itinerary, but not a word could be learned regarding his whereabouts. Finally one day a hurried telegram, collect, came. It read:

"'I am not selling many goods, but am making a fine impression. Wire $100 quick.'

"The nerve of the fellow got our nerve, and, do you know, we wired him the $100, and afterward he made good. We have never asked him what he did during the two months, and he has never broached the subject to us. It was the wit that pleased us."—Washington Star.

Nature's Wonders.

The common flea leaps 200 times its own length. To show like agility a man six feet tall would have to leap a distance of 1,200 feet. The cheese mite is about one-quarter of an inch in length, yet it has been seen to take the tip of its tail in its mouth and then, letting go with a jerk, to leap out of a vessel six inches in depth. To equal this a man would have to jump out of a well from a depth of 144 feet.

And equally strange things are found among the plants and vegetables. A well known student of nature once tried the growing force of a squash. When it was eighteen days old and measured twenty-seven inches in circumference, he fixed a sort of harness around it, with a long lever attached. The power of the squash was measured by the weight it lifted, the weight being fixed to the lever. When it was twenty days old, two days after the harness was fixed on it, it lifted sixty pounds. On the nineteenth day it lifted 5,000 pounds.

The Three Meal Habit.

Our three meal habit is a fearful tax on our working capacity. It trebles the temptation to overeating. Our champions stagger under the weight of a physiological handicap. One-half of the functional energy of the system is diverted by the exigencies of digestion No other hygienic mistake has done so much to make us a generation of dyspeptics as the custom of after dinner work. Its victims, moreover, incur the risk of contracting that form of moral dyspepsia called pessimism. It tends to rob the working day of its reward —Success.

PROSTHETIC DENTISTRY

A VERY IMPORTANT BRANCH.

Those who have been unfortunate in losing their teeth entirely, either by excessive use of medicine or by dread of having them taken care of by a dentist, or by neglecting them, must, of course, submit to the last resort,—wearing artificial teeth, or in other words, a plate. This special feature in dentistry needs special care and study of facial expression. After the teeth have been extracted, the contour of the face sinks and changes the expression entirely to a distressing appearance, making it necessary to insert plates at once, (such as we term temporary ones,) which retain the original expression and will give good satisfaction until the mouth is in the proper condition to receive the permanent sets. In that way the same natural expression can be preserved. OUR method of making artificial teeth, we think, is a capital way to please both patient and dentist—why? Well, in the first place, we make a proof of all our work in this special line, which enables our patients to see for themselves what they are getting; whether the mouth is too full or too much sunken, or whether the teeth are arranged to satisfy the patient, for it is our aim to give all who patronize us perfect satisfaction.

We find that by making a proof first

that we obtain much better results, as you will readily understand, and in case there should be anything unsatisfactory, it can be changed in a very few minutes, while, after a plate is finished a new impression would be necessary and consequently cause the patient much time and trouble.

We strictly guarantee our plates to be of the best material that can be bought—which are known the world over by all dentists as the best teeth made. Our vulcanite rubber is of the very best American quality.

In conclusion, we absolutely defy anyone to say that we can't use the best material, and will forfeit $50 to anyone who can in any instance show a case from The Pittsburg Dental Parlors but that is of the best material only. Our price for the best teeth manufactured is only $8.00, and we will do strictly as we advertise, for we are satisfied with smaller profits and more of them.

"ORTHODONTIA"

Or Better Known As Straightening Irregular Teeth.

This explanation will give the reader an idea of the treatment and its beautiful results. Children can have their teeth straightened with much comfort, as the bones are much susceptible to treatment and give more readily, therefore the most satisfactory results can be obtained in the younger ones. In older people, say after 20 years of age, the bones are fully developed and it requires a longer time, as the bones are more resistful; yet we have in our possession satisfactory proofs that we have been successful in many cases. We can produce the models before and after treatment of patients, and can refer you to them if you deem it necessary. This is comparatively a new branch in dentistry, and we operate under the angle system entirely, this being the latest and simplest method, which has for the past five years been taught in one of our leading Dental Colleges in Chicago. Our work has proven very satisfactory in this important branch of the profession. Come and have your teeth examined and get OUR price.

22K., GOLD CROWNS.

We are happy to say that crowning the teeth has been the most succesful treatment yet devised for those teeth which are too frail to bear filling, producing the most substantial and lasting results that can be applied to the mouth. It is also beautiful and natural, and the most useful substitute ever made to take the place of an imperfect tooth. We gladly submit for the benefit of those not familiar with the system of crowning, the following description:

Because of the peculiar condition of a tooth, it is unable to retain a filling satisfactorily, and in such cases resort may be made to a crown—either of gold or porcelain facing. These crowns may be made by the operator to conform perfectly to the shape and size of the natural tooth, then by careful antiseptic treatment, cement the crown on the tooth or root, which will absolutely prevent further decay.

Our crowns are made of strictly 22k. gold; not as thin as paper, but of 28 and 30-gauge gold, whichever the case may demand. Our price $5.00. None better.

PAINLESS EXTRACTION OF TEETH

The extracting of the teeth seems to be the most dreaded of all the operations coming under the head of dentistry, yet in spite of all that can be done, some teeth invariably reach that stage of decay where extraction is absolutely necessary. Well, then, what is to be done? People cannot lay awake night after night with a jumping toothache, so they must sooner or later submit to the extraction of the tooth. The Pittsburg Dental Parlors have in use one of the finest preparations for the painless extraction of teeth that ever existed, and we have testimonial after testimonial to that effect. We can extract from one to fifteen teeth without the least pain or danger, by freezing the gums with this preparation, and we will leave it with yourself whether you have ever heard of freezing the gums before, unless it was spoken of in the advertisements of The Pittsburg Dental Parlors. We have been using it for the past four years and find it a valuable anaesthetic for the painless extraction of teeth. We also administer gas to those who prefer it, but having one tooth taken out by the use of our freezing process will convince you that it speaks for itself.

No charge for the extracting; no extra charge for the anaesthetic when you want artificial teeth.

FILLING THE TEETH

AND IT'S IMPORTANCE.

It is always desirable and of great importance to save as much of the tooth as possible and when the destruction of a tooth has not proceeded far enough to require extraction or even crowning, further progress of the disease may be stopped by filling. In this branch of dentistry The Pittsburg Dental Parlors have won general recognition among the people for superior methods of antiseptically treating and filling the teeth. We insist on the most careful examination, in order that the precise nature and extent of the trouble may be definitely determined—whether the nerve is to be devitalized (killed) or whatever course is to be adopted.

An incompetent dentist will betray his incompetency in the matter of filling teeth more quickly than in any other branch of his profession. Various materials, such as gold as a standard, Silver, Amalgam, Platinum, Porcelain, Cement, etc., are used in filling the cavities of partially decayed teeth, and require knowledge and good judgment as to which one of these filling materials shall be used in any particular case. Some cavities require a filling that is absolutely a non-conductor of heat and cold, while others require that the base or foundation be of one material and the covering of another. Now, when these points have been settled, the filling must be inserted in such a manner as to remain firmly in place. Any person who has had the exasperating experience of losing a filling from a tooth knows how important it is to patronize a first-class dentist. When a filling is not skilfully done there is likely,very likely, to be toothache, abscess, swelling of the gums and face, and all the horrible suffering that these conditions imply. But on the other hand, should a tooth be antiseptically treated and carefully filled with the proper filling material, it certainly should last a life-time.

Car fare refunded to those living out of East Liverpool who have their work done at the Pittsburg Dental Parlors.

OUR SPECIALTY

CROWN AND BRIDGE WORK.

Our specialty is crown and bridge work, or teeth without plates, as you may choose to call it. This is the latest improved method of attaching gold and porcelain crowns to the roots of natural teeth, the support of which is on either end; upon these are crowns, thus relieving the gums from pressure necessary to support the artificial teeth when they are wholly gone. This, of course, does away with the wearing of plates in a large majority of cases, where this cumbersome device was formerly employed. Every wearer of plates will readily appreciate what this invention means.

By the improvements which have been introduced into the practice of dentistry it is now possible to wear a complete upper and lower set of artificial teeth without the use of plates, providing there are three roots or teeth of the natural ones left intact and properly distributed, as these serve as abutments or piers, as those of an ordinary bridge.

ARE CLEAN INSTRUMENTS IMPORTANT?

This is indeed a very important point to be noticed. How disagreeable it must be for patients to sit down in a dentist's chair and have excavators, burrs, probes, etc., used in their mouths, not knowing whether they have been properly or thoroughly sterilized (cleansed). Even if they have been that thought flashes through their minds: "I wonder if that dentist cleaned this instrument since he used it last?" We have just within arm's reach of our operating chair a sterilizer with boiling water always ready to place the instruments in to be sterilized immediately after use, and the patients can feel easy when they can see with their own eyes that asceptic precautions are taken in this most essential part of our work. A clean and thoroughly sterilized instrument, ready for use, not only pleases the patient, but lightens the conscience of the operator.

ELECTRIC DENTISTRY

The Pittsburg Dental Parlors, situated in the Diamond, owned and managed by Dr. J. M. Little, is one of the most complete dental offices of the day. He has fitted his offices with the latest electrical appliances which enable him with his skilled hands to do the work with considerably less pain to the patient, as well as with more rapidity, which the people of this advanced age demand. The Electric Engine which all people dread, is one of wonderful pain-saving in both drilling and grinding the teeth. The Electric Water Heater is of great importance also, having at arm's reach tepid or hot water in an instant. The Electric fans will be a treat to the doctor as well as add to the comfort of his patients. The fountain Spray Spittoon connected to the chair, not only has the crystal glass bowl and sparkling water constantly flowing, but has in connection the Saliva Ejector, which carries the saliva from the mouth, permitting the patient to rest in ease, while heretofore it would be constantly running down the throat and causing all the inconvenience imaginable. His office will be lighted with electricity throughout, making everything pleasing to the eye.

Dr. Little's methods in dentistry have won him a very large practice, giving the quickest, easiest and most lasting results, and his efforts to advance will ever more be appreciated by all who come to his office, which is open evenings, for the benefit of those who cannot come during the day.
